(s) Self-improvement programs—inmates in protective management shall have access to self-improvement programs in their housing unit, or in separate locations within the institution that conform with the need for security. Self-improvement programs include academic education, vocational training, correspondence courses or self-directed study activities, religious activities, quiet activities, and letter writing.

(t) Inmates in protective management may refuse opportunities for out-of-cell activities, however, such refusals shall count against the inmate's required minimum hours of out-of-cell time. Refusals shall be documented on Form DC6-235, Record of Protective Management.

(u) Other privileges not listed above shall be restricted on a daily case-by-case basis when such restrictions are necessary for the security, order, or effective management of the institution. All such restrictions shall be documented on Form DC6-235, Record of Protective Management, and reported to the ICT. The ICT is authorized to restrict privileges on a continuing basis after a determination that such restrictions are necessary for the security, order, or effective management of the institution. The ICT's decision for continuing restriction shall be documented on Form DC6-235, Record of Protective Management.
