DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL REGULATION

Board of Accountancy

RULE NO.: RULE TITLE:

61H1-27.001 College or University Requirements

PURPOSE AND EFFECT: The Board proposes a rule amendment to the language to include the European Quality Improvement System (EQUIS) into the academic requirements. SUMMARY: The proposed rule amendment adds EQUIS into the academic requirements.

SUMMARY OF STATEMENT OF ESTIMATED REGULATORY COSTS AND LEGISLATIVE RATIFICATION:

The Agency has determined that this will not have an adverse impact on small business or likely increase directly or indirectly regulatory costs in excess of $200,000 in the aggregate within one year after the implementation of the rule. A SERC has not been prepared by the Agency.

The Agency has determined that the proposed rule is not expected to require legislative ratification based on the statement of estimated regulatory costs or if no SERC is required, the information expressly relied upon and described herein: During discussion of the economic impact of this rule at its Board meeting, the Board concluded that this rule change will not have any impact on licensees and their businesses or the businesses that employ them. The rule will not increase any fees, business costs, personnel costs, will not decrease profit opportunities, and will not require any specialized knowledge to comply. This change will not increase any direct or indirect regulatory costs. Hence, the Board determined that a Statement of Estimated Regulatory Costs (SERC) was not necessary and that the rule will not require ratification by the Legislature. No person or interested party submitted additional information regarding the economic impact at that time.

Any person who wishes to provide information regarding a statement of estimated regulatory costs, or provide a proposal for a lower cost regulatory alternative must do so in writing within 21 days of this notice.

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL SERVICES
Securities

RULE NO.: RULE TITLE:

69W-600.0024 Application for Registration as an Associated Person (Investment Adviser and Federal Covered Advisor)

The Florida Office of Financial Regulation hereby gives notice: that on March 9, 2021, the issued a Final Order Denying Wellman’s Petition for Permanent Waiver of Rule 6W-600.0024, FAC, and Notice of Rights.

The petition sought a Waiver of paragraph 69W-600.0024(6)(b) which requires an associated person of an investment adviser or federal covered adviser to provide the Office with one of the following:

1. Proof of passing, within two years of the date of application for registration, the Uniform Investment Adviser Law Examination (Series 65); or
2. Proof of passing, within two years of the date of application for registration, the General Securities Representative Examination (Series 7), the Uniform Combined State Law Examination (Series 66), and proof of passing within four years of the date of application for registration, the Securities Industry Essentials (SIE) Examination.

The Office makes the following findings in support of its denial of the Petition.

The Office finds that Section 120.542, Florida Statutes, does not authorize agencies to grant variances or waivers of statutes. The Office finds that the Petition makes generalized and conclusory statements about how the purpose of the underlying statute will be achieved by the waiver of the exam requirements imposed by Rule 69W-600.0024, Florida Administrative Code. Petitioner does not explicitly state what the purpose of section 517.12, Florida Statutes, is or how cited subsection (10), concerning assessment fees, is relevant to this matter. Instead, the Petition vaguely alludes to the fact that the purpose of the underlying statute is served because Petitioner has previously passed the required exams and has been continuously employed in the financial services industry since 2013. Accordingly, the Office finds that the Petition has not demonstrated that the purpose of the underlying statute, Section 517.12, Florida Statutes, implemented by the rule requirement to have timely passed the Series 65 examination, has been satisfied as to Petitioner’s qualifications and knowledge.

The Office finds that the Petition did not demonstrate that application of paragraph 69W-600.0024(6)(b), Florida Administrative Code, as to Petitioner, would create a substantial hardship. The Petition asserts that Petitioner “due to unforeseeable delays in the onboarding process [with Merrill Lynch] his Form U4 was filed just shortly after the 2 year expiration and subsequently the exams lapsed.” Thus, as posed in the Petition, it is Merrill Lynch’s errors, actions, and 83 days of delays in the onboarding process that caused Petitioner to have to retake the Series 65 exam and experience hardship, not the application of paragraph 69W-600.0024(6)(b), Florida Administrative Code.

Further, the Office finds that the Petition fails to clearly identify or delineate the specific way paragraph 69W-600.0024(6)(b), Florida Administrative Code, violates principles of fairness by affecting Petitioner in a manner significantly different from the way it affects other similarly situated persons who have to take or retake an examination. The Office notes that Petitioner (who applied 83 days after the exam results expired) is in no different position relative to re-taking the Series 66 exam or taking the Series 65 exam than any other person whose Series 66 exam results have expired or who must take the Series 65 exam. The Petition seems to argue that Merrill Lynch’s onboarding delays resulted in the unfair treatment of the Petitioner. Thus, by Petitioner’s own admission, it is not Rule 69W-600.0024, Florida Administrative Code, that violates principles of fairness, but the delays in Merrill Lynch’s onboarding process. Resolution: The Final Order denying the Petition is based on the conclusion that Petitioner is not entitled to a waiver.

A copy of the Order or additional information may be obtained by contacting: Agency Clerk, Office of Financial Regulation, P.O. Box 8050, Tallahassee, Florida 32314-8050, (850)410-9889, Agency.Clerk@flofr.com or visiting the Agency’s website at www.flofr.com.
