The Department gives notice of its intent to find the Public Schools Interlocal Agreement (“Agreement”) executed between the Jackson County School Board and each of the following local governments: Town of Malone and the Cities of Graceville and Jacob, pursuant to Section 163.31777, F.S., to be consistent with the minimum requirements of Section 163.31777(2), F.S.

The Agreement is available for public inspection Monday through Friday, except for legal holidays, during normal business hours, at the Town of Malone, 5182 – 9th Avenue, Malone, Florida 32445 and at the City of Jacob, 4490 Jackson Road, Jacob, Florida 32431 and at the City of Graceville, 4403 Constitution Lane, Marianna, Florida 32446.

Any affected person, as defined in Section 163.31777(3)(b), F.S., has a right to petition for an administrative hearing to challenge the proposed agency determination that the Agreement is consistent with the minimum requirements of Section 163.31777(2), F.S. The petition must be filed within twenty-one (21) days after publication of this notice in the Florida Administrative Weekly, and must include all of the information and contents described in Uniform Rule 28-106.201, F.A.C. The petition must be filed with: Agency Clerk, Department of Community Affairs, 2555 Shumard Oak Boulevard, Tallahassee, Florida 32399-2100, and a copy mailed or delivered to: Jackson County School Board, Town of Malone and the Cities of Graceville and Jacob. Failure to timely file a petition shall constitute a waiver of any right to request an administrative proceeding as a petitioner under Sections 120.569 and 120.57, F.S. If a petition is filed, the purpose of the administrative hearing will be to present evidence and testimony and forward a recommended order to the Department. If no petition is filed, this Notice of Intent shall become final agency action.

If a petition is filed, other affected persons may petition for leave to intervene in the proceeding. A petition for intervention must be filed at least twenty (20) days before the final hearing and must include all of the information and contents described in Uniform Rule 28-106.205, F.A.C. A petition for leave to intervene shall be filed at the Division of Administrative Hearings, Department of Management Services, 1230 Apalachee Parkway, Tallahassee, Florida 32399-1550. Failure to petition to intervene within the allowed time frame constitutes a waiver of any right such a person has to request a hearing under Sections 120.569 and 120.57, F.S., or to participate in the administrative hearing.

If a formal or informal proceeding is commenced as described above, any party to that proceeding may suggest mediation under Section 120.573, F.S. Mediation is not available as of right, and will not occur unless all parties agree to participate in the mediation. Choosing mediation does not affect the right to an administrative hearing.

In Re: LAND DEVELOPMENT REGULATIONS
 ADOPTED BY CITY OF KEY WEST
 ORDINANCE NO.: 10-02

FINAL ORDER

The Department of Community Affairs (the "Department") hereby issues its Final Order, pursuant to Section 380.05(6) and (11), Florida Statutes, (2009), approving a land development regulation adopted by a local government within the City of Key West Area of Critical State Concern as set forth below.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The City of Key West is a designated area of critical state concern.
2. On February 5, 2010 the Department received for review City of Key West Ordinance No. 10-02, which was adopted by the City of Key West City Commission on January 5, 2010, ("Ord. 10-02"). The purpose of Ord. 10-02 is to amend Part B, Land Development Regulations, Section 114-1 Definitions by adding a definition of Historic Marker, and create Section 114-43 Exception for Historic Markers to exempt historic markers from sign regulations.
3. Ord. 10-02 is consistent with the City's Comprehensive Plan: Goal 1A-1: to Identify and Protect Resources of Archeological, Historical, and Architectural Significance; Goal 1A-2: to Promote Public Education, Awareness, and Appreciation of Historic, Architectural, and Archaeological Resources; Policy 1A-2.1.1: Public Information, Education and Technical Assistance; and Policy 1A-2.1.7: Public Information Display.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

4. The Department is required to approve or reject land development regulations that are adopted by any local government in an area of critical state concern based upon consistency with the Principles for Guiding Development applicable to that area of critical state concern. Sections 380.05(6) and 380.05(11), Florida Statutes, (2009).
5. The City of Key West is an Area of Critical State Concern. Section 380.05, Florida Statutes (2009) and Rule 28-36.001, Florida Administration Code.
6. "Land development regulations" include local zoning, subdivision, building, and other regulations controlling the development of land. Section 380.031(8), Florida Statutes (2009). The regulations adopted by Ord. 10-02 are land development regulations.

7. All land development regulations enacted, amended, or rescinded within an area of critical state concern must be consistent with the principles for guiding development for the particular area (the "Principles"). Section 380.05(6), Florida Statutes; see Rathkamp v. Department of Community Affairs, 21 F.A.L.R. 1902 (Dec. 4, 1998), aff'd., 740 So. 2d 1209 (Fla. 3d DCA 1999). The Principles for the City of Key West Area of Critical State Concern are set forth in subsection 28-36.003(1), Florida Administrative Code.
8. The above identified portions of Ord. 10-02, are consistent with the following Principles:
 - (a) Strengthen local government capabilities for managing land use and development.
 - (e) Protection of the historical heritage of Key West and the Key West Historical Preservation District.
 - (h) Protection of the public health, safety, welfare and economy of the City of Key West, and the maintenance of Key West as a unique Florida Resource.
9. Ord. 10-02 is not inconsistent with the remaining Principles and is consistent with the Principles for Guiding Development as a whole.

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that Ord. 10-02 is found to be consistent with the Principles for Guiding Development of the City of Key West Area of Critical State Concern, and is hereby APPROVED.

This Order becomes effective 21 days after publication in the Florida Administrative Weekly unless a petition is filed as described below.

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY

EPA Region 4 is seeing person who are interested in being placed on a mailing list and notified of EPA Region 4 Outer Continental Shelf (OCS) Air Quality Permitting Actions.

EPA Region 4 is the agency responsible for implementing and enforcing Clean Air Act requirements for OCS sources located beyond the seaward boundaries of the states of Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, and North Carolina. In the Gulf of Mexico, this is the area east of 87° 3" and beyond the seaward boundary of Florida. OCS sources are primarily engaged in offshore oil and gas exploration and production, but can also include alternative energy facilities, such as offshore wind and ocean current projects.

These OCS sources will likely need a air quality preconstruction permit issued pursuant to EPA’s Prevention of Significant Deterioration Program and/or a Title V operating permit. The Code of Federal Regulations at 40 CFR 124 requires EPA to “Notify the public of the opportunity to be put on the mailing list through periodic publication in the public press and in such publications as Regional and State funded newsletters, environmental bulletins, or State law journals.” This section also requires EPA to notify the public when EPA proposes to issue an air quality permit and allow the opportunity for comment on the proposed permit or request a public hearing. The public comment period is a minimum of 30 days. The public will be notified of a draft permit through a printed legal notice in a newspaper of general circulation in an area onshore from where the source will be located. The public may also be notified of the draft permit through EPA’s website. EPA will directly notify any person who requests to be on the mailing list. EPA Region 4 is seeking persons who are interested in being placed on a mailing list and notified of OCS air quality permitting actions.

If interested, please go to: <http://www.epa.gov/region4/air/permits/OCSPermits/OCSPublicnotices.html> and fill out and submit the form. You can also submit the following information by email or mail to the below contact.
