Section VII

Notices of Petitions and Dispositions Regarding Declaratory Statements

DEPARTMENT OF LAW ENFORCEMENT

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that The Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission has declined to rule on the petition for declaratory statement filed by Paul Salone on April 11, 2011. The following is a summary of the agency's declination of the petition:

The Notice of Petition for Declaratory Statement was published in the Florida Administrative Weekly, Vol. 37, No. 16, on April 22, 2011. The Petition sought the Commission's interpretation of Rule 11B-27.007, F.A.C., and Section 943.13(4), F.S., and asks if the bar to criminal justice professional certification presented by a felony conviction can be overcome by a judicially issued Certificate of Relief from Disabilities issued by a court in New York. The Commission considered the petition at its regularly scheduled business agenda meeting held in Ocala, Florida, on May 19, 2011. The Commission's order, filed May 19, 2011, denied the requested interpretation of Rule 11B-27.007, F.A.C., and Section 943.13(4), F.S., by the Petitioner. The Petitioner sought to have the Commission interpret Rule 11B-26.007, F.A.C., and Section 943.13(4), F.S., in such a way as to make his New York felony conviction for Criminal Sale of Controlled Substance no longer a disqualification for certification as a criminal justice professional in Florida. Petitioner urged that the judicially rendered New York Certificate of Relief from Disabilities operates in the same manner as an executive full pardon in Florida. In Florida, only an executive full pardon will permit a candidate with a felony conviction to potentially become a certified officer. The Commission found that Florida case law is clear. Only an executive full pardon will serve to permit a convicted felon to be considered for a criminal justice professional certification. The Commission found that the judicial Certificate of Relief from Disabilities issued by the New York court in Petitioner's case is not the equivalent of an executive full pardon issued by the Governor of Florida because the Certificate of Relief from Disabilities is not a pardon. The Certificate of Relief from Disabilities cannot overcome the bar to certification faced by the Petitioner in both Rule 11B-27.007, F.A.C. and Section 943.13(4), F.S.

A copy of the Order Declining of the Petition for Declaratory Statement may be obtained by contacting: Grace A. Jaye, Assistant General Counsel, Florida Department of Law Enforcement, P. O. Box 1489, Tallahassee, FL 32302.

DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL REGULATION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Division of Florida Condominiums, Timeshares, and Mobile Homes, Department of Business and Professional Regulation, State of Florida, has issued an order disposing of the petition for declaratory statement filed by Emerald Lake, SPE, LLC, Park Owner, In Re: Emerald Lake Mobile Home Community, Docket No. 2010050399 on October 6, 2010. The following is a summary of the agency's disposition of the petition:

The Division finds that Emerald Lake, SPE may not require the purchaser of an existing home in the community to enter into a new rental agreement with it under the P3 prospectus, under Section 723.059(3), Florida Statutes, and must include the disclosure required by the Division to be included in the lifetime rental agreement amended into the P1, PA and P2 prospectus, and the language required to be included in the P3 prospectus, which are consistent with Section 723.059(3), Florida Statutes.

A copy of the Order Disposing of the Petition for Declaratory Statement may be obtained by contacting: Division Clerk, Department of Business and Professional Regulation, Division of Florida Condominiums, Timeshares, and Mobile Homes, 1940 North Monroe Street, Tallahassee, Florida 32399-2217.

Please refer all comments to: Janis Sue Richardson, Chief Assistant General Counsel, Department of Business and Professional Regulation, Division of Florida Condominiums, Timeshares, and Mobile Homes, 1940 North Monroe Street, Tallahassee, Florida 32399-2202.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Division of Florida Condominiums, Timeshares, and Mobile Homes, Department of Business and Professional Regulation, State of Florida has declined to rule on the petition for declaratory statement filed by Thomas Kopf, Unit Owner, In re: Lauderdale Tennis Club, Inc., Docket No. 2011020393, on April 18, 2011. The following is a summary of the agency's declination of the petition:

The Division declined to issue a declaratory statement because the division may not issue a statement without competent substantial evidence, including a complete, current set of governing documents upon which to base its decision; or because it cannot issue a statement when it would affect the rights of third parties who are not parties to this proceeding.
