60Q-6.110 MEDIATION, GENERALLY

(1) All petitions and claims pending at the time a mediation conference is held are deemed consolidated and shall will be mediated at that conference.

(2) No Change.

(a) The Deputy Chief Judge shall assign a mediator and mediation date for each petition filed. The state mediation conference may be re-scheduled, within the 130-day statutory period, upon mutual request of the parties and agreement of the assigned mediator. The parties shall jointly review the mediator's calendar online to identify potential alternative dates and times before contacting the mediator with a request to reschedule. Within 40 days after the filing of the earliest petition for benefits awaiting mediation, the parties may agree to coordinate with the assigned judge an alternate state mediation date which meets the 130 day statutory deadline. Any such change in date shall be considered a re-scheduling and not a continuance of the mediation. Upon agreement of the parties, and approval of an alternate state mediator, mediation for the case may be transferred to the alternate state mediator provided any pending mediation is held within the 130-day statutory period. Permission of the mediator from whom it is transferred is not necessary. The alternate state mediator shall be responsible for placing the mediation on her/his calendar.

(b) After the state mediation has been noticed on the 40th day following the filing of the earliest petition for benefits awaiting mediation, Tthe state mediation shall not be continued, or transferred by the parties to an alternate state mediator, for a mediation beyond the 130-day statutory period, meaning moved to a date beyond the 130 day statutory period, unless first granted by the judge upon agreement of the parties or upon proper motion demonstrating that the basis for the continuance, or transfer, arises from circumstances beyond the movant's control or for other good cause shown. The motion shall be filed no later than 30 days before the date of the scheduled state mediation absent an emergency, unless the mediation notice is sent to the parties less than 30 days prior to the noticed mediation.

(c) Any party that moves for, or stipulates to, reassignment to an alternate mediator for the purpose of effectuating a live mediation shall attend that mediation live or the party's attorney shall attend live. No mediator shall allow telephonic attendance for any lawyer or party that has stipulated or moved for reassignment on the basis of facilitating a live mediation.

(c) The state mediation conference may be re scheduled, within the 130 day statutory period, upon mutual request of the parties and agreement of the assigned mediator.

(d) Unless the signator appears live, digital signature software shall be used to execute mediation documents, including mediation conference reports and settlement agreements.

(e) (d) Parties to a workers' compensation claim may jointly request voluntary mediation services from the OJCC. Such requests will be considered as individual state mediator calendars permit. Any voluntary mediation will be conducted only if all parties so stipulate. Any voluntary mediation will be governed by these rules. Failure to appear at a voluntary mediation shall not be a basis for the imposition of sanctions.

(3) No Change.

(4) If the parties resolve all issues, or all issues except for attorney's fees, prior to the scheduled mediation conference, the attorney or unrepresented claimant who has filed a petition for benefits shall file a pleading in order to cancel the corresponding mediation. The pleading must be filed prior to the scheduled mediation and shall indicate the manner in which each issue was resolved. The preparation and filing of this pleading are not the responsibility of the mediator.

(5) State mediations shall presumptively be conducted virtually on a video platform. The assigned mediator shall appear by video for video mediations. Unless the notice of mediation includes the login or call in information for the mediation, the assigned mediator is responsible for providing that information to all parties or counsel. The assigned mediator may allow telephonic appearance at any video mediation. The following persons shall attend the mediation conference: the claimant; the claims representative of the carrier/servicing agent, which representative must have full authority to resolve all the issues and/or settle the case; the employer, if uninsured; the insured or self-insured employer, if the employer/servicing agent does not have full authority to settle the issues; and the attorneys for the parties. The appearance of an attorney for a party does not dispense with the required video or live attendance of the party. No party shall appear at the mediation conference by telephone, whether mediation is live or virtual, unless such appearance is approved in advance by the mediator. Any party appearing by telephone has stipulated to be bound by that party's attorney of record's signature on the mediation report.

(a) The adjuster, if represented by counsel, may attend the live or virtual mediation by phone unless an objection is filed with the mediator on the basis of good cause. The parties may agree, in writing, that any party may appear telephonically. In the absence of such agreement, the The mediator shall have discretion to allow any party and/or that party's attorney of record to appear at the live or virtual mediation conference by telephone, except as provided in (2)(c). The party requesting an appearance by telephone must furnish a upon the party's written request furnished to the mediator and the opposing party or, if represented, the party's attorney of record no fewer than five days prior to the mediation conference. The expense of telephonic attendance shall be borne by the person or party attending by telephone. Each party and attorney attending a virtual mediation is responsible to have adequate computer hardware, signal strength, internet bandwidth, and premises with/from which to attend mediation.

(b) Any person attending mediation telephonically or virtually shall provide an e-mail address for use in exchanging documents during the mediation unless good cause is shown to the mediator at least five days prior to the mediation. Any mediation, except when the outcome is an impasse, attended telephonically is not concluded until the signed agreement report is returned to the mediator. The signed agreement report shall be returned within 72 hours by the end of the business day unless excused by the mediator.

(c) Any party appearing telephonically or by audio-video communication technology has stipulated to be bound by that party's attorney of record's signature on the mediation report. The parties may not object to the enforceability of a mediation agreement on the ground that communication technology was used for participation in the mediation.

(6) No Change.

(7) Immediately following the conclusion of a mediation conference in an open OJCC case, the mediator, whether state, adjunct, or private, shall prepare a mediation agreement report stating which issues or claims in dispute are resolved and which remain unresolved. The mediation agreement report shall identify by filing date each petition mediated. In the case of private mediation, the claimant shall file with the judge within five business days of the mediation conference the mediator's mediation agreement report and mediation settlement agreement, if any. Signatures of the parties on the signed mediation report may be an original, electronic signature by means approved by the Chief Judge, or facsimile and signatures may be on different copies of the agreement report.

60Q-6.111 AUTHORITY AND DUTIES OF MEDIATOR

(c) (b) The mediator may meet and consult privately with any party or parties or their counsel during the mediation.

(d) (c) Upon written request of any mediator, or upon a motion filed in the case and directed to the Deputy Chief Judge, the Deputy Chief Judge may reassign any mediation to accommodate conflict of interest or potential appearance of Any order disqualifying a mediator shall name a substitute mediator. Nothing in this rule shall preclude mediators from disqualifying themselves or refusing any assignment. In the event that testimony is taken by video teleconference, administration of the oath by the judge during the proceeding is as binding as if the judge and witness were physically present in the same room. A motion for an in-person hearing or mediation, instead of a video teleconference proceeding, may be granted upon a showing of good cause.

(5) No Change.

(6) Any attorney or unrepresented claimant who has filed a petition for benefits must file a pleading with the judge in order to cancel the corresponding final hearing. The pleading must be filed prior to the scheduled final hearing and shall indicate the manner in which each issue was resolved. For purposes of this rule, the order of penalties, ranging from lowest to highest, is: reprimand, fine, probation, suspension, and revocation. (a) For first citations identified in the disciplinary guidelines as minor violations, the Office shall issue a notice of noncompliance except when the Office identifies aggravating factors that would warrant a more severe penalty.

(b) For second citations identified in the disciplinary guidelines as minor violations, the Office may issue a written agreement which is not adopted by a final order imposing an administrative fine. Written agreements may be used only when the violations are limited to minor violations.

The Office shall also consider the circumstances when determining whether a deviation from the range of penalties in the disciplinary guidelines is warranted: In the presence of aggravating or mitigating circumstances supported by clear and convincing evidence, the Office of Financial Regulation shall be entitled to deviate from the above guidelines in imposing discipline upon a person.

(b) Aggravating or mitigating circumstances may include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. The severity of the act.

1. The violation rate is less than 5% when compared to the overall sample size reviewed:

2. No prior citation by the Office against the consumer finance company or a control person of the consumer finance company within the past 10 years;

3. The consumer finance company detected and voluntarily instituted corrective action or measures to avoid the recurrence of the violation prior to the detection and intervention by the Office;

4. The violation is attributable to a single person or employee, and the consumer finance company removed or otherwise disciplined the individual prior to detection or intervention by the Office;

5. The consumer finance company provided substantial assistance to the Office in its examination or investigation of the underlying misconduct, or whether the respondent attempted to impede or delay Office's examination or investigation, to conceal or withhold information from the Office, or to provide incomplete, inaccurate or misleading testimony or documentary information to the Office;

6. The consumer finance company self-reported the violation to the Office prior to examination or discovery by the Office; or

7. Other relevant, case-specific circumstances.

(b) The following circumstances are considered aggravating factors which will be used to increase the penalty:

1. The violation rate is more than 95% when compared to the overall sample size reviewed (sample size must be equal to or greater than 50 transactions and cover a date range of at least 6 months);

2. There is a potential for harm to customers or the public;

3. Prior citations by the Office against the consumer finance company or a control person of the consumer finance company within the past 5 years which contain the same violations;

4. The violation was the result of willful misconduct or recklessness;

5. The consumer finance company or a control person of the consumer finance company attempted to conceal the violation or mislead the Office; or

Section IV Emergency Rules

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND CONSUMER SERVICES

Division of Consumer Services RULE NO.: RULE TITLE:

5JER22-5 Volatility Standards for Gasoline

SPECIFIC REASONS FOR FINDING AN IMMEDIATE DANGER TO THE PUBLIC HEALTH, SAFETY OR WELFARE: As a result of the effects of Hurricane Ian, and in light of ongoing distribution challenges, extreme and unusual circumstances exist that could foreseeably prevent the distribution of an adequate fuel supply to consumers throughout the state. Adoption of this emergency rule waiving certain volatility standards will help increase available fuel supply, assist in recovery efforts, and protect the welfare of Florida consumers.

REASON FOR CONCLUDING THAT THE PROCEDURE IS FAIR UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES: This emergency rule was initiated following discussions with industry members who have access to the most up-to-date information available regarding fuel availability and distribution. The rule will apply to all fuel suppliers and will help to ensure a consistent supply of fuel in Florida while alleviating additional strain on Florida's fuel market. As this is an unprecedented situation, prompt action based on the information available is both necessary and fair.

SUMMARY: This emergency rule allows fuels of different volatility classes than those set forth in ASTM International designation D4814-20a, as adopted in rule 5J-21.001, F.A.C., for the periods indicated.

THE PERSON TO BE CONTACTED REGARDING THE EMERGENCY RULE IS: Blair Bodenmiller, Assistant Director of Consumer Services, 2005 Apalachee Parkway, Tallahassee, FL 32399, (850)410-3675.

The Florida Office of Financial Regulation hereby gives notice: On 9/28/2022, the Florida Office of Financial Regulation issued a Final Order Denying Petition for Variance from subsection 69W-600.0024(6), Florida Administrative Code filed by James K. Larson II. The Office finds that the Petition has not demonstrated that the purpose of the underlying statute, section 517.12, Florida Statutes, implemented by the rule requirement to have timely passed the Series 65 examination, has been satisfied as to Petitioner's qualifications and knowledge.
