Section 121.0515(6), Florida Statutes, provides that a Special Risk Class member may purchase retirement credit in the special risk class based upon past service, and may upgrade retirement credit for such past service to two percent of the average final compensation. To be eligible to purchase Special Risk Class credit for past service, the member must have been employed with the city or special district at the time it commenced participating in FRS, and the service must satisfy the present criteria for FRS Special Risk Class membership (except the requirement for a certificate or waiver of certificate).

I understand that if I elect to upgrade my Regular Class service to Special Risk Class service, I must pay the required contributions plus interest.

I certify that I was employed by the named agency/employer in the stated capacity for the stated dates.

This position meets the Special Risk Class membership criteria set forth in Section 121.0515.(3)
