Section II – Applicant Information

APPLICANT INFORMATION TAXPAYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER OR FEDERAL EMPLOYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER This is a unique nine-digit number assigned by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) to business entities operating in the United States for the purposes of identification. When the number is used for identification rather than employment tax reporting, it is usually referred to as a Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN), and when used for the purposes of reporting employment taxes, it is usually referred to as the Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN). Applicant's TIN/FEIN: FULL LEGAL NAME The "full legal name" is the complete name of the business entity that will be operating the establishment. This is generally the name that is on the documents that establish the existence or formation of the business entity. For example, a corporation's full legal name would normally be the name that is found in the corporation's articles of incorporation. Applicant's Full Legal Name: FICTITIOUS, TRADE, OR BUSINESS NAME If the applicant intends to operate the permitted establishment under a name that is different from the Applicant's Full Legal Name listed above - e.g. fictitious, trade, or business name (also commonly referred to as a "dba", "D/B/A", or "doing business as" name - this name must be registered with the Florida Department of State, Division of Corporations. This is the name that will appear on the permit issued to the applicant by the department and must be the name that the applicant uses on operational documents for permitted activities. The applicant WILL NOT operate the permitted establishment under a name that is different from the Applicant's Full Legal Name listed above. The applicant WILL operate the permitted establishment under the following fictitious, trade, or business name: The fictitious, trade, or business name listed directly above, is registered with the Florida Department of State, Division of Corporations and the applicant has been issued the following registration number:
