Program Title: Nutrition and Wellness
Program Type: Non Career Preparatory
Career Cluster: Hospitality & Tourism

Secondary – Non Career Preparatory
Program Number	8500355
CIP Number	09200117PA
Grade Level	9-12
Standard Length	.5 credit
Teacher Certification	Refer to the Program Structure section.
CTSO	FCCLA

Purpose

This program offers a sequence of courses that provides coherent and rigorous content aligned with challenging academic standards and relevant technical knowledge and skills needed to prepare for further education and careers in the Hospitality & Tourism career cluster; provides technical skill proficiency, and includes competency-based applied learning that contributes to the academic knowledge, higher-order reasoning and problem-solving skills, work attitudes, general employability skills, technical skills, and occupation-specific skills, and knowledge of all aspects of the Hospitality & Tourism career cluster.

The content includes but is not limited to selection, preparation, service and storage of foods. It allows students to use technology to practice meal management techniques directed toward nutritional food choices based on the life cycle. This course will provide an awareness of consumer issues relating to health and wellness.

Additional Information relevant to this Career and Technical Education (CTE) program is provided at the end of this document.

Program Structure

This program is a planned sequence of instruction consisting of one, half-credit course.

To teach the course listed below, instructors must hold at least one of the teacher certifications indicated for that course.

The following table illustrates the secondary program structure:

Course Number	Course Title	Teacher Certification	Length	Level	Graduation Requirement
8500355	Nutrition and Wellness	FAM CON SCI CULINARY 7 G	.5 credit	2

(Graduation Requirement Abbreviations- EQ= Equally Rigorous Science, PA= Practical Arts, EC= Economics)

National Standards (NS)

This program has been aligned to the National Standards for Family and Consumer Sciences Education developed by the National Association of State Administrators of Family and Consumer Science (NASAFACS). The NASAFACS is an affiliate of the Family and Consumer Science division of the Association for Career and Technical Education (ACTE). The NASAFACS and ACTE are members of the American Association of Family & Consumer Science’s (AAFCS) FCS Alliance.

Common Career Technical Core – Career Ready Practices

Career Ready Practices describe the career-ready skills that educators should seek to develop in their students. These practices are not exclusive to a Career Pathway, program of study, discipline or level of education. Career Ready Practices should be taught and reinforced in all career exploration and preparation programs with increasingly higher levels of complexity and expectation as a student advances through a program of study.

1. Act as a responsible and contributing citizen and employee.
2. Apply appropriate academic and technical skills.
3. Attend to personal health and financial well-being.
4. Communicate clearly, effectively and with reason.
5. Consider the environmental, social and economic impacts of decisions.
6. Demonstrate creativity and innovation.
7. Employ valid and reliable research strategies.
8. Utilize critical thinking to make sense of problems and persevere in solving them.
9. Model integrity, ethical leadership and effective management.
10. Plan education and career path aligned to personal goals.
11. Use technology to enhance productivity.
12. Work productively in teams while using cultural/global competence.

Standards

After successfully completing this program, the student will be able to perform the following:

- 01.0 Demonstrate teamwork and leadership skills in the family workplace and community.
- 02.0 Determine the relationship of nutrition to wellness.
- 03.0 Analyze the effects of consumer issues on food selection.
- 04.0 Specify the nutritional needs of the young adult.
- 05.0 Assess the effects of food choices for people with special needs, including eating disorders and medical conditions, on wellness.
- 06.0 Apply the principles of meal planning and management to families and cultures.
- 07.0 Apply basic food skills.
- 08.0 Practice appropriate food storage methods.

Additional Information

Laboratory Activities

Laboratory investigations that include scientific inquiry, research, measurement, problem solving, emerging technologies, tools and equipment, as well as, experimental, quality, and safety procedures are an integral part of this career and technical program/course. Laboratory investigations benefit all students by developing an understanding of the complexity and ambiguity of empirical work, as well as the skills required to manage, operate, calibrate and troubleshoot equipment/tools used to make observations. Students understand measurement error; and have the skills to aggregate, interpret, and present the resulting data. Equipment and supplies should be provided to enhance hands-on experiences for students. Equipment and supplies should be provided to enhance hands-on experiences for students.

Florida Standards for English Language Development (ELD)

English Language Development (ELD) Standards Special Notes:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. To access an ELL supporting document which delineates performance definitions and descriptors, please click on the following link: <http://www.cpalms.org/uploads/docs/standards/eld/SI.pdf>.

For additional information on the development and implementation of the ELD standards, please contact the Bureau of Student Achievement through Language Acquisition at sala@fldoe.org.

Special Notes

The occupational standards and benchmarks outlined in this secondary program correlate to the standards and benchmarks of the postsecondary program with the same Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) number.

Career and Technical Student Organization (CTSO)

Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) is the inter-curricular career and technical student organization providing leadership training and reinforcing specific career and technical skills. Career and Technical Student Organizations provide activities for students as an integral part of the instruction offered.

Cooperative Training – OJT

On-the-job training is appropriate but not required for this program. Whenever offered, the rules, guidelines, and requirements specified in the OJT framework apply.

Accommodations

Federal and state legislation requires the provision of accommodations for students with disabilities as identified on the secondary student's Individual Educational Plan (IEP) or 504 plan or postsecondary student's accommodations' plan to meet individual needs and ensure equal access. Accommodations change the way the student is instructed. Students with disabilities may need accommodations in such areas as instructional methods and materials, assignments and assessments, time demands and schedules, learning environment, assistive technology and special communication systems. Documentation of the accommodations requested and provided should be maintained in a confidential file.

In addition to accommodations, some secondary students with disabilities (students with an IEP served in Exceptional Student Education (ESE)) will need modifications to meet their needs. Modifications change the outcomes or what the student is expected to learn, e.g., modifying the curriculum of a secondary career and technical education course. Note: postsecondary curriculum and regulated secondary programs cannot be modified.

Some secondary students with disabilities (ESE) may need additional time (i.e., longer than the regular school year), to master the student performance standards associated with a regular course or a modified course. If needed, a student may enroll in the same career and technical course more than once. Documentation should be included in the IEP that clearly indicates that it is anticipated that the student may need an additional year to complete a Career and Technical Education (CTE) course. The student should work on different competencies and new applications of competencies each year toward completion of the CTE course. After achieving the competencies identified for the year, the student earns credit for the course. It is important to ensure that credits earned by students are reported accurately. The district's information system must be designed to accept multiple credits for the same course number for eligible students with disabilities.

Additional Information

Laboratory Activities

Laboratory investigations that include scientific inquiry, research, measurement, problem solving, emerging technologies, tools and equipment, as well as, experimental, quality, and safety procedures are an integral part of this career and technical program/course. Laboratory investigations benefit all students by developing an understanding of the complexity and ambiguity of empirical work, as well as the skills required to manage, operate, calibrate and troubleshoot equipment/tools used to make observations. Students understand measurement error; and have the skills to aggregate, interpret, and present the resulting data. Equipment and supplies should be provided to enhance hands-on experiences for students.

Florida Standards for English Language Development (ELD)

English Language Development (ELD) Standards Special Notes:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. To access an ELL supporting document which delineates performance definitions and descriptors, please click on the following link: <http://www.cpalms.org/uploads/docs/standards/eld/SI.pdf>.

For additional information on the development and implementation of the ELD standards, please contact the Bureau of Student Achievement through Language Acquisition at sala@fldoe.org.

Special Notes

The occupational standards and benchmarks outlined in this secondary program correlate to the standards and benchmarks of the postsecondary program with the same Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) number.

Students who choose the internship option must work a minimum of 150 hours to earn one credit. Introduction to Hospitality & Tourism, Technology for Hospitality & Tourism and Hospitality & Tourism Marketing Management should be completed prior to enrollment in Hospitality and Tourism Internship. Each student intern is required to have a job performance skills plan, signed by the student/intern, teacher, and employer. This plan should include competencies developed through classroom experiences, a list of on-the-job duties and tasks to be performed, and identification of student performance standards. The Hospitality & Tourism Internship may provide paid or non-paid work experience based on the needs of the student and availability of positions.

Career and Technical Student Organization (CTSO)

Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA); Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) and Florida DECA are the intercurricular career and technical student organizations providing leadership training and reinforcing specific career and technical skills. Career and Technical Student Organizations provide activities for students as an integral part of the instruction offered.

Cooperative Training – OJT

On-the-job training is appropriate but not required for this program. Whenever offered, the rules, guidelines, and requirements specified in the OJT framework apply.

Accommodations

Federal and state legislation requires the provision of accommodations for students with disabilities as identified on the secondary student's Individual Educational Plan (IEP) or 504 plan or postsecondary student's accommodations' plan to meet individual needs and ensure equal access. Accommodations change the way the student is instructed. Students with disabilities may need accommodations in such areas as instructional methods and materials, assignments and assessments, time demands and schedules, learning environment, assistive technology and special communication systems. Documentation of the accommodations requested and provided should be maintained in a confidential file.

In addition to accommodations, some secondary students with disabilities (students with an IEP served in Exceptional Student Education (ESE)) will need modifications to meet their needs. Modifications change the outcomes or what the student is expected to learn, e.g., modifying the curriculum of a secondary career and technical education course. Note: postsecondary curriculum and regulated secondary programs cannot be modified.

Some secondary students with disabilities (ESE) may need additional time (i.e., longer than the regular school year), to master the student performance standards associated with a regular course or a modified course. If needed, a student may enroll in the same career and technical course more than once. Documentation should be included in the IEP that clearly indicates that it is anticipated that the student may need an additional year to complete a Career and Technical Education (CTE) course. The student should work on different competencies and new applications of competencies each year toward completion of the CTE course. After achieving the competencies identified for the year, the student earns credit for the course. It is important to ensure that credits earned by students are reported accurately. The district's information system must be designed to accept multiple credits for the same course number for eligible students with disabilities.

Course Title: Hospitality and Tourism Cooperative Education - OJT
Course Type: Career Preparatory
Career Cluster: Hospitality & Tourism

Secondary – Cooperative Education - OJT
Course Number	8800420
CIP Number	02529999CP
Grade Level	9-12
Standard Length	Multiple credits
Teacher Certification	Refer to the Course Structure section.
CTSO	FCCLA

Purpose

This program offers a sequence of courses that provides coherent and rigorous content aligned with challenging academic standards and relevant technical knowledge and skills needed to prepare for further education and careers in the Hospitality & Tourism cluster; provides technical skill proficiency, and includes competency-based applied learning that contributes to the academic knowledge, higher-order reasoning and problem-solving skills, work attitudes, general employability skills, technical skills, and occupation-specific skills, and knowledge of all aspects of the Hospitality & Tourism cluster.

Each student job placement must be related to the job preparatory program in which the student is enrolled or has completed.

The purpose of this course is to provide the on-the-job training component when the cooperative method of instruction is appropriate. Whenever the cooperative method is offered, the following is required for each student: a training agreement; a training plan signed by the student, teacher and employer, including instructional objectives; a list of on-the-job and in-school learning experiences; a workstation which reflects equipment, skills and tasks which are relevant to the occupation which the student has chosen as a career goal; and a site supervisor with a working knowledge of the selected occupation. The workstation may be in an industry setting or in a virtual learning environment. The student must be compensated for work performed.

The teacher/coordinator must meet with the site supervisor a minimum of once during each grading period for the purpose of evaluating the student's progress in attaining the competencies listed in the training plan.

Hospitality and Tourism Cooperative Education - OJT may be taken by a student for one or more semesters. A student may earn multiple credits in this course. The specific student performance standards which the student must achieve to earn credit are specified in the Cooperative Education - OJT Training Plan.

Additional Information relevant to this Career and Technical Education (CTE) program is provided at the end of this document.

Course Structure

To teach the course listed below, instructors must hold at least one of the teacher certifications indicated for that course.

The following table illustrates the secondary course structure:

8800420	Hospitality and Tourism Cooperative Education - OJT	Any CTE field or coverage	Multiple Credits	2

(Graduation Requirement Abbreviations- EQ= Equally Rigorous Science, PA= Practical Arts, EC= Economics)

Note: *CHI – Certified Hospitality Instructor

Teachers certified in Business Education must obtain this training from the American Hotel and Lodging Educational Institute to teach this program.

Common Career Technical Core – Career Ready Practices

Career Ready Practices describe the career-ready skills that educators should seek to develop in their students. These practices are not exclusive to a Career Pathway, program of study, discipline or level of education. Career Ready Practices should be taught and reinforced in all career exploration and preparation programs with increasingly higher levels of complexity and expectation as a student advances through a program of study.

1. Act as a responsible and contributing citizen and employee.
2. Apply appropriate academic and technical skills.
3. Attend to personal health and financial well-being.
4. Communicate clearly, effectively and with reason.
5. Consider the environmental, social and economic impacts of decisions.
6. Demonstrate creativity and innovation.
7. Employ valid and reliable research strategies.
8. Utilize critical thinking to make sense of problems and persevere in solving them.
9. Model integrity, ethical leadership and effective management.
10. Plan education and career path aligned to personal goals.
11. Use technology to enhance productivity.
12. Work productively in teams while using cultural/global competence.

Standards

After successfully completing this program, the student will be able to perform the following:

- 01.0 Perform designated job skills.
- 02.0 Demonstrate work ethics.

Career and Technical Student Organization (CTSO)

Family, Career and Community Leadership of America (FCCLA) is the intercurricular career and technical student organization providing leadership training and reinforcing specific career and technical skills. Career and Technical Student Organizations provide activities for students as an integral part of the instruction offered.

Accommodations

Federal and state legislation requires the provision of accommodations for students with disabilities as identified on the secondary student's Individual Educational Plan (IEP) or 504 plan or postsecondary student's accommodations' plan to meet individual needs and ensure equal access. Accommodations change the way the student is instructed. Students with disabilities may need accommodations in such areas as instructional methods and materials, assignments and assessments, time demands and schedules, learning environment, assistive technology and special communication systems. Documentation of the accommodations requested and provided should be maintained in a confidential file.

Note: postsecondary curriculum and regulated secondary programs cannot be modified.

Some secondary students with disabilities (ESE) may need additional time (i.e., longer than the regular school year), to master the student performance standards associated with a regular course or a modified course. If needed, a student may enroll in the same career and technical course more than once. Documentation should be included in the IEP that clearly indicates that it is anticipated that the student may need an additional year to complete a Career and Technical Education (CTE) course. The student should work on different competencies and new applications of competencies each year toward completion of the CTE course. After achieving the competencies identified for the year, the student earns credit for the course. It is important to ensure that credits earned by students are reported accurately. The district's information system must be designed to accept multiple credits for the same course number for eligible students with disabilities.

Regulated Programs

This program is regulated by the Florida Department of Business & Professional Regulation, Division of Hotels and Restaurants.

It is strongly recommended that teachers obtain employee food handler training certification, as well as food safety manager training/certification. More information available at the Florida Department of Business & Professional Regulation (<http://www.myfloridalicense.com/DBPR/hotels-restaurants/food-lodging/>).

Information on Department of Health rules that affect culinary programs is available at <https://www.flrules.org/gateway/chapterhome.asp?chapter=64E-11>.

Common Career Technical Core – Career Ready Practices

Career Ready Practices describe the career-ready skills that educators should seek to develop in their students. These practices are not exclusive to a Career Pathway, program of study, discipline or level of education. Career Ready Practices should be taught and reinforced in all career exploration and preparation programs with increasingly higher levels of complexity and expectation as a student advances through a program of study.

1. Act as a responsible and contributing citizen and employee.
2. Apply appropriate academic and technical skills.
3. Attend to personal health and financial well-being.
4. Communicate clearly, effectively and with reason.
5. Consider the environmental, social and economic impacts of decisions.
6. Demonstrate creativity and innovation.
7. Employ valid and reliable research strategies.
8. Utilize critical thinking to make sense of problems and persevere in solving them.
9. Model integrity, ethical leadership and effective management.
10. Plan education and career path aligned to personal goals.
11. Use technology to enhance productivity.
12. Work productively in teams while using cultural/global competence.

32.03	Maintain maintenance logs.
32.04	Apply proper knife skills.
32.05	Recognize styles and various forms of Baking & Pastry Arts technology.
33.0	Demonstrate baking mathematics knowledge and skills. Student will be able to:
33.01	Show proficiency in using Bakers Percentage in standardized baking recipes.
34.0	Shows proficiency in imperial measurements and metric units. The student will be able to:
34.01	Understand the difference between recipes and formulas.
34.02	Proficient in converting recipes and formulas.
35.0	Prepare nutritious food for individuals with special dietary needs. Student will be able to:
35.01	Develop baking products for populations with special dietary needs and allergens.
35.02	Develop baking products with alternative sweeteners, flours and fat alternatives.
36.0	Demonstrate standard preparation skills for baked goods. The student will be able to:
36.01	Identify and select baking ingredients.
36.02	Store and handle baking products.
36.03	Prepare baked products using mixes.
36.04	Prepare sweet and savory pies.
36.05	Prepare and bake quick breads.
36.06	Prepare and bake yeast breads.
36.07	Prepare, bake and present assorted cakes.

CTE Standards and Benchmarks
36.08	Prepare syrups, sweet sauces, jams, jellies, preserves and gelatins.
36.09	Prepare and apply butter creams and icings.
36.10	Prepare baked products that are “healthy” through the use of alternative ingredients.
36.11	Define gluten sensitivity and the resulting physical conditions.
36.12	Identify foods that contain gluten and foods that are gluten-free.
36.13	Identify and select basic ingredients used for gluten-free baking (including organic ingredients and non-gluten flours).
36.14	Prepare and present individual production plated desserts.
36.15	Prepare a variety of ice cream, sorbet and frozen desserts.
36.16	Prepare a variety of chocolates and candies.
37.0	Explain the connections and interdependency of food and science. The student will be able to:
37.01	Compare and contrast the reactions of different chemicals on foods.
37.02	Evaluate how the eventual flavor and texture of food ingredients is affected by the cooking method used.
37.03	Create a chart to do a food sensory analysis.
37.04	Define molecular gastronomy and research the origin of the term.
37.05	Distinguish between culinary definitions and culinary precisions.
37.06	Create, prepare, and present an original recipe using the concepts of molecular gastronomy.
37.07	Research top allergens, analyze their effect on persons with food allergies, and how to control allergy contamination in the kitchen.
38.0	Demonstrate advanced preparation skills for baking and pastry products. The student will be able to:
38.01	Identify and select advanced baking and dessert ingredients.
38.02	Store and handle advanced baking and dessert products.
38.03	Prepare advanced baked products (pies, breads, pastries, etc.)
38.04	Prepare, bake and present specialty cakes.

CTE Standards and Benchmarks
38.05	Demonstrate advanced decorating techniques using various frostings/icings.
38.06	Prepare gluten-free products using appropriate blending and mixing techniques to achieve high-quality taste, texture, and appearance.
38.07	Demonstrate strategies used in communicating with customers who have allergies.
39.0	Apply the knowledge and skills necessary to successfully cater an event. The student will be able to:
39.01	Recognize an RFP (Request for Proposal) and how to send one out.
39.02	Develop a proposal fitting the consumer's needs and desires to a budget, site selection, permits, transportation, parking, theme development, audio/visual needs, security, banquet planning (food or menu development), seating, rental equipment, emergency plans, health care and cleanup.
39.03	Use acquired knowledge to obtain Food Safety Manager Certificate that is valid in Florida.
39.04	Assess the impact on food preparation and organization for on premise vs. off-premise events.
39.05	Develop a menu and pricing, cost controls and consumer advisories applicable to a catering job.
39.06	Plan and prepare dishes used in different catering styles demonstrating ease in transportation and service.
39.07	Describe how to staff an event.
39.08	Illustrate various room set-ups for different catering functions, including proper tools, motion techniques, and staff needed.
39.09	Create a plan for floral arrangements, rental equipment requirements, what to do with leftovers, and target marketing for a catering job.
40.0	Demonstrate creativity in presenting baked products. The student will be able to:
40.01	Identify criteria for achieving an aesthetically pleasing plate.
40.02	Conduct sensory evaluations of plated presentations.
40.03	Practice various garnishing tools.
40.04	Create an edible centerpiece for presentation and assessment.

Course Title: Culinary Arts 4 (Track 3/Gastronomy and Garde Manger Skills)
Course Number: 8800560
Course Credit: 1

Course Description:

This course provides opportunities for students to apply their acquired knowledge and skills in culinary related scenarios. This feature enables instruction in three key culinary disciplines. Track 3 is comprised of Standards 39 – 45 and is a one credit course focused on Gastronomy and Garde Manger Skills. This is a culminating course to develop advanced culinary techniques and skills. Students will learn using modern technology and culinary trends. To complete the program, students must complete either Track 1 or Track 2 or Track 3. Students may complete more than one track in this course.

CTE Standards and Benchmarks

Track 3 Gastronomy and Garde Manger Skills
41.0	Exhibit the ability to follow state mandated guidelines for food service. The student will be able to:
41.01	Demonstrate proper personal hygiene (hand washing; use of gloves; grooming; proper hair restraints, closed-toe shoes, aprons, uniforms).
41.02	Demonstrate proper food handling techniques (thermometer use; thawing and freezing methods; internal cooking temperatures) utilizing HACCP industry safety and sanitation procedures.
41.03	Describe symptoms of food borne illness and how food borne illness can be prevented.
41.04	Use previous knowledge from acquiring the food safety manager certification that is accredited in Florida.
41.05	Identify and utilize first-aid procedures for accidents and injuries.
42.0	Utilize industry related technology to enhance methodology and efficiency of preparation. The student will be able to:
42.01	Create and present a selection of designs for development of a hospitality business using appropriate software applications.
42.02	Recognize the resources available to the public and private sector regarding the science behind menu development analyzing demographics for targeted advertising and the value of 'key word' identifiers for search engines.
42.03	Develop various restaurant menus using appropriate software applications.
42.04	Design advertisements for hospitality services for different media using a variety of software applications.

42.05	Use technology to operate a restaurant including inventory, costing, budgeting, and tracking number of guests and profit.
43.0	Examine the interconnections and interdependency of ecological, social, and economic systems. The student will be able to:
43.01	Explain sustainability as it relates to food production and consumption.
43.02	Develop and apply the knowledge, perspective, vision, skills, and habits necessary to make decisions and take actions to promote sustainability in the kitchen.
43.03	Explain how foods are cultivated by various natural processes.
43.04	Describe reasonable stewardship regarding best practices for Green programs including energy efficiency through energy-saving equipment, wastewater controls, product purchasing and recycling.
43.05	Explain how energy saving measures increase profitability of a food service establishment.
43.06	Describe reasonable stewardship regarding best practices for Sustainability programs including seafood sustainability (aquaculture, fishery management – recreational and commercial); product purchasing awareness; and used cooking oil (grease management, biodiesel initiatives).
43.07	Describe current trends related to sustainability (local, slow food movement, etc.).
43.08	Prepare seasonal, locally sourced farm to table foods.
43.09	Define the characteristics of the basic composition of a plated meal.
43.10	Explain and analyze the FDA Organic guidelines.
43.11	Differentiate and explain commercially processed food from organic, heirloom or artisanal products.
43.12	Describe the short term and long term benefits of clean eating on the body and society.
43.13	Demonstrate strategies used in communicating with customers who have allergies.
44.0	Demonstrate advanced preparation skills for various proteins. The student will be able to:
44.01	Research and report on the quality grading process for meats.
44.02	Identify and prepare cuts of meat that would be suitable for moist/dry/combo cooking techniques.
44.03	Describe the characteristics of organic meats.
44.04	Identify Game/Exotic meats.
44.05	Describe the process of aging meats.
44.06	Prepare steaks, chops, and roasts.

44.07	Prepare proteins using FDA Food Code: https://www.fda.gov/food/retail-food-protection/fda-food-code .
45.0	Demonstrate buffet food preparation skills. - The student will be able to:
45.01	Prepare hot and cold beverages
45.02	Prepare a variety of condiments, accompaniments, salad dressings, cold sauces and garnishes.
45.03	Prepare cold sandwiches.
45.04	Prepare sliced meats for a cold buffet.
45.05	Prepare bound salads.
45.06	Prepare cheese boards, canapés, and cold hors d'oeuvres
45.07	Plan, set up, and serve buffets.
45.08	Select, use and maintain buffet equipment and utensils.
45.09	Identify terrines, galantines, ballotine, charcuterie and forcemeats.
45.10	Demonstrate pickling, canning, curing and fermentation techniques.
46.0	Apply the knowledge and skills necessary to successfully cater an event. The student will be able to:
46.01	Recognize an RFP (Request for Proposal) and how to send one out.
46.02	Develop a proposal fitting the consumer's needs and desires to a budget, site selection, permits, transportation, parking, theme development, audio/visual needs, security, banquet planning (food or menu development), seating, rental equipment, emergency plans, health care and cleanup.
46.03	Use acquired knowledge to obtain Food Safety Manager Certification that is valid in Florida.
46.04	Assess the impact on food preparation and organization for on premise vs. off-premise events.
46.05	Develop a menu and pricing, cost controls and consumer advisories applicable to a catering job.
46.06	Plan and prepare dishes used in different catering styles demonstrating ease in transportation and service.
46.07	Describe how to staff an event.
46.08	Illustrate various room set-ups for different catering functions, including proper tools, motion techniques, and staff needed.
46.09	Create a plan for floral arrangements, rental equipment requirements, what to do with leftovers, and target marketing for a catering job.

46.10	Plan, organize, and cater an actual event using acquired skills.
47.0	Develop and implement a capstone project. The student will be able to:
47.01	Create a menu (may be gourmet or thematic) using original recipes or references must be cited. Manual must be printed and presented professionally.
47.02	Plan for use of appropriate tableware, linens and decorations.
47.03	Develop purchase orders for all food items, supplies, tools and equipment including vendors and prices.
47.04	Create a timeline allowing sufficient time for preparation, service, clean up and include notated HACCP control points.
47.05	Prepare a cost analysis for the event – cost per person and per menu item.
47.06	Create a meal and present it to a panel.
47.07	Deliver a 5-10 minute oral presentation on this project utilizing at least one form of multi-media technology.
47.08	Photograph or videotape all skills being demonstrated.

Additional Information

Laboratory Activities

Laboratory investigations that include scientific inquiry, research, measurement, problem solving, emerging technologies, tools and equipment, as well as, experimental, quality, and safety procedures are an integral part of this career and technical program/course. Laboratory investigations benefit all students by developing an understanding of the complexity and ambiguity of empirical work, as well as the skills required to manage, operate, calibrate and troubleshoot equipment/tools used to make observations. Students understand measurement error; and have the skills to aggregate, interpret, and present the resulting data. Equipment and supplies should be provided to enhance hands-on experiences for students.

Florida Standards for English Language Development (ELD)

English Language Development (ELD) Standards Special Notes:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. To access an ELL supporting document which delineates performance definitions and descriptors, please click on the following link: <http://www.cpalms.org/uploads/docs/standards/eld/SI.pdf>.

For additional information on the development and implementation of the ELD standards, please contact the Bureau of Student Achievement through Language Acquisition at sala@fldoe.org.

Special Notes

The occupational standards and benchmarks outlined in this secondary program correlate to the standards and benchmarks of the postsecondary program with the same Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) number.

In order to complete the program and sit for the industry certification test, National ProStart Certificate of Achievement, a student must complete Culinary Arts 1, Culinary Arts 2, and Culinary Arts 3.

Career and Technical Student Organization (CTSO)

Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) and SkillsUSA are the intercurricular career and technical student organizations providing leadership training and reinforcing specific career and technical skills. Career and Technical Student Organizations provide activities for students as an integral part of the instruction offered.

Cooperative Training – OJT

On-the-job training is appropriate but not required for this program. Whenever offered, the rules, guidelines, and requirements specified in the OJT framework apply.

Accommodations

Federal and state legislation requires the provision of accommodations for students with disabilities as identified on the secondary student's Individual Educational Plan (IEP) or 504 plan or postsecondary student's accommodations' plan to meet individual needs and ensure equal access. Accommodations change the way the student is instructed. Students with disabilities may need accommodations in such areas as instructional methods and materials, assignments and assessments, time demands and schedules, learning environment, assistive technology and special communication systems. Documentation of the accommodations requested and provided should be maintained in a confidential file.

In addition to accommodations, some secondary students with disabilities (students with an IEP served in Exceptional Student Education (ESE)) will need modifications to meet their needs. Modifications change the outcomes or what the student is expected to learn, e.g., modifying the curriculum of a secondary career and technical education course. Note: postsecondary curriculum and regulated secondary programs cannot be modified.

Some secondary students with disabilities (ESE) may need additional time (i.e., longer than the regular school year), to master the student performance standards associated with a regular course or a modified course. If needed, a student may enroll in the same career and technical course more than once. Documentation should be included in the IEP that clearly indicates that it is anticipated that the student may need an additional year to complete a Career and Technical Education (CTE) course. The student should work on different competencies and new applications of competencies each year toward completion of the CTE course. After achieving the competencies identified for the year, the student earns credit for the course. It is important to ensure that credits earned by students are reported accurately. The district's information system must be designed to accept multiple credits for the same course number for eligible students with disabilities.

Purpose

The purpose of this course is to provide students with learning opportunities in a prescribed program of study within the Hospitality & Tourism cluster that will enhance opportunities for employment in the career field chosen by the student.

Additional Information relevant to this Career and Technical Education (CTE) program is provided at the end of this document.

Course Structure

The content is prescribed by the instructor based upon the individual student's assessed needs for directed study.

This course may be taken only by a student who has completed or is currently completing a specific secondary job preparatory program for additional study in this career cluster. A student may earn multiple credits in this course.

The selected standards and benchmarks, which the student must master to earn credit, must be outlined in an instructional plan developed by the instructor.

To teach the course listed below, instructors must hold at least one of the teacher certifications indicated for that course.

The following table illustrates the secondary course structure:

Common Career Technical Core – Career Ready Practices

Career Ready Practices describe the career-ready skills that educators should seek to develop in their students. These practices are not exclusive to a Career Pathway, program of study, discipline or level of education. Career Ready Practices should be taught and reinforced in all career exploration and preparation programs with increasingly higher levels of complexity and expectation as a student advances through a program of study.

1. Act as a responsible and contributing citizen and employee.
2. Apply appropriate academic and technical skills.
3. Attend to personal health and financial well-being.
4. Communicate clearly, effectively and with reason.
5. Consider the environmental, social and economic impacts of decisions.
6. Demonstrate creativity and innovation.
7. Employ valid and reliable research strategies.
8. Utilize critical thinking to make sense of problems and persevere in solving them.
9. Model integrity, ethical leadership and effective management.
10. Plan education and career path aligned to personal goals.
11. Use technology to enhance productivity.
12. Work productively in teams while using cultural/global competence.

Standards

After successfully completing this program, the student will be able to perform the following:

- 01.0 Demonstrate expertise in a specific occupation contained within the career cluster.
- 02.0 Conduct investigative research on a selected topic related to the career cluster using approved research methodology, interpret findings, and prepare presentation to defend results.
- 03.0 Apply enhanced leadership and professional career skills.
- 04.0 Demonstrate higher order critical thinking and reasoning skills appropriate for the selected program of study.

CTE Standards and Benchmarks
01.0	Demonstrate expertise in a specific occupation within the career cluster. The student will be able to:
01.01	The benchmarks will be selected from the appropriate curriculum frameworks and determined by the instructor based upon the individual students assessed needs.
02.0	Conduct investigative research on a selected topic related to the career cluster using approved research methodology, interpret findings, and prepare presentation to defend results. The student will be able to:
02.01	Select investigative study referencing prior research and knowledge.
02.02	Collect, organize and analyze data accurately and precisely.
02.03	Design procedures to test the research.
02.04	Report, display and defend the results of investigations to audiences that may include professionals and technical experts.
03.0	Apply enhanced leadership and professional career skills. The student will be able to:
03.01	Develop and present a professional presentation offering potential solutions to a current issue.
03.02	Enhance leadership and career skills through work-based learning including job placement, job shadowing, entrepreneurship, internship, or a virtual experience.
03.03	Participate in leadership development opportunities available through the appropriate student organization and/or other professional organizations.
03.04	Enhance written and oral communications through the development of presentations, public speaking, and live and/or virtual interviews.
04.0	Demonstrate higher order critical thinking and reasoning skills appropriate for the selected program of study. The student will be able to:
04.01	Use mathematical and/or scientific skills to solve problems encountered in the chosen occupation.
04.02	Read and interpret information relative to the chosen occupation.
04.03	Locate and evaluate key elements of oral and written information.
04.04	Analyze and apply data and/or measurements to solve problems and interpret documents.

04.05 Construct charts/tables/graphs using functions and data.

Course Title: Nutrition and Food Science
Course Number: 8801101
Course Credit: 1 credit

Course Description:

This course is designed for students to understand Nutrition and Food Science concepts, including biological and chemical makeup of food, safety and sanitary handling of food, preparation of food using various catalysts, and the identification of the structures and functions of nutrients.

CTE Standards and Benchmarks
01.0	Use scientific methods to solve problems, employ metric measurements, and demonstrate safe and effective use of laboratory instruments write detailed lab reports that record, interpret and evaluate data. The student will be able to:
01.01	Describe the importance of scientific exploration of food.
01.02	Identify and use the basic units of the metric system of measurement.
01.03	Demonstrate effective manipulation of scientific materials and equipment in the food science laboratory.
01.04	Practice the expected safety procedures and care while working in the Food Science laboratory.
01.05	Describe and discuss the steps of the scientific method using math applications.
01.06	Design and write accurate and complete reports of Food Science laboratory experiments including the mathematical and statistical examples for the evaluation of collected data.
02.0	Identify basic scientific information of elements, compounds and mixtures and describe changes that occur during chemical reactions in food. The student will be able to:
02.01	Identify chemical symbols for common elements found in food.
02.02	Use scientific information to identify, classify and compare elements, compounds and mixtures.
02.03	Define and differentiate between chemical and physical changes in food.
02.04	Identify and categorize the forms of energy as it relates to food.
02.05	Describe and demonstrate methods of energy transfer used in food preparation (ie: boiling, freezing, sous vide and microwaving).
02.06	Describe the chemical reactions responsible for some of the changes observed in foods.
03.0	Contrast the effects of acids and bases on foods during presentation. The student will be able to:

CTE Standards and Benchmarks
03.01	Differentiate between the properties of acids and bases.
03.02	Calculate the concentration of an acid or base from titration data.
03.03	Identify the importance of acids and bases in food preparation and provide examples of each.
03.04	Explain the role acids and bases play in the digestive process.
04.0	Explain the science and mathematical process to qualify and analyze information gained from sensory evaluations in food science. The student will be able to:
04.01	Outline characteristics of and design a successful sensory evaluation process.
04.02	Describe the components for sensory evaluation experimentation.
04.03	Quantify and analyze the information to determine which foods appeal to people.
05.0	Apply safety and sanitation procedures in the handling, processing and storing of food products.
05.01	Explain techniques and procedures for the safe handling of food products.
05.02	Evaluate food product handling procedures.
05.03	Demonstrate approved food product handling techniques.
05.04	Conduct and record a Hazard Analysis Critical Control Point (HACCP) procedure of food products.
05.05	Describe the effects foodborne pathogens have on food products and humans.
05.06	Describe personal grooming and safety measures and how handling food can contaminate food.
06.0	Identify and explain the effects of microorganisms on food.
06.01	Compare the beneficial and detrimental effects of microorganisms on food.
06.02	Identify the characteristics of microorganisms and related foodborne illnesses.
06.03	Describe the environmental conditions necessary for the growth of microorganisms.
06.04	Demonstrate an understanding of the cause and effect relationship between using accepted food handling procedures and preventing foodborne illnesses.
07.0	Compare and contrast the different methods of food preservation. The student will be able to:
07.01	Describe and give examples of how fermentation is useful in preserving foods.

CTE Standards and Benchmarks
07.02	Describe and give examples of how chemicals are useful in preserving foods.
07.03	Describe and give examples of temperature-related methods used in preservation of foods.
07.04	Discuss the time-temperature abuse.
07.05	Conduct an experiment in fermentation, chemical, or temperature-related method of food preservation.
08.0	Describe the molecular structure and functions of the six basic nutrients. The student will be able to:
08.01	Explain the functions of the six basic nutrients effects on the body.
08.02	Compare and contrast the properties and functions of the six basic nutrients.
08.03	Use molecular formulas for reactions that occur involving the six basic nutrients.
08.04	Describe the role of enzymes as catalyst in chemical reactions.
08.05	Draw the molecular structures for the six basic nutrients.
09.0	Analyze the change in nutrients during food preparation and processing. The student will be able to:
09.01	Describe the effects of food preparation processing methods on the structure of protein.
09.02	Demonstrate the effect of heat, light and pH on vitamins and mineral stability.
09.03	Demonstrate the effect of light, air, temperature, water and storage on the quality and stability of fats.
09.04	Explain the effects of temperature, molecular, agitation, preparation methods and storage on carbohydrates.
09.05	Write chemical equations to illustrate enzymatic reactions in food preparation.
09.06	Describe the methods used to control enzymatic reactions during food preparation and processing.
09.07	Compare and contrast the interrelationships among the six basic nutrients during food preparation.
10.0	Design a nutrition plan based on the relationship between diet and healthy body. The student will be able to:
10.01	Describe the process used by the body in utilization of the six basic nutrients.
10.02	Define anabolism and catabolism as two opposing processes of metabolism.
10.03	Analyze the relationship between food intake, energy use, and body weight.

CTE Standards and Benchmarks
10.04	Explain the interrelationship between diet and individual medical conditions.
10.05	Describe the characteristics of a healthy diet.
11.0	Investigate food science topics and develop experiments using knowledge previously gained record, interpret and evaluate data. The student will be able to:
11.01	Demonstrate the methodology associated with acquiring data on a food science topic.
11.02	Formulate the hypothesis in the area of Food Science that can be tested by experimentation.
11.03	Design procedures for food science experiment.
12.0	Recognize how food science interacts with technology and society. The student will be able to:
12.01	Describe how various technological advances in Nutrition and Food Science could affect society.
12.02	Analyze information from public media that demonstrate problem solving skills in making wise consumer choices.
12.03	Describe career opportunities resulting from science, nutrition and related technology.
13.0	Demonstrate leadership and organizational skills. The student will be able to:
13.01	Identify professional and youth organizations.
13.02	Identify purposes and functions of professional and youth organizations.
13.03	Identify roles and responsibilities of members of professional and youth organizations.
13.04	Work cooperatively as a group member to achieve organizational responsibilities.
13.05	Demonstrate confidence in leadership roles and organizational responsibilities.

Additional Information

Laboratory Activities

Laboratory investigations that include scientific inquiry, research, measurement, problem solving, emerging technologies, tools and equipment, as well as, experimental, quality, and safety procedures are an integral part of this career and technical program/course. Laboratory investigations benefit all students by developing an understanding of the complexity and ambiguity of empirical work, as well as the skills required to manage, operate, calibrate and troubleshoot equipment/tools used to make observations. Students understand measurement error; and have the skills to aggregate, interpret, and present the resulting data. Equipment and supplies should be provided to enhance hands-on experiences for students.

Florida Standards for English Language Development (ELD)

English Language Development (ELD) Standards Special Notes:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. To access an ELL supporting document which delineates performance definitions and descriptors, please click on the following link: <http://www.cpalms.org/uploads/docs/standards/eld/SI.pdf>.

For additional information on the development and implementation of the ELD standards, please contact the Bureau of Student Achievement through Language Acquisition at sala@fldoe.org.

Career and Technical Student Organization (CTSO)

Family Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) is the appropriate intercurricular career and technical student organization(s) providing leadership training and reinforcing specific career and technical skills. Career and Technical Student Organizations provide activities for students as an integral part of the instruction offered.

Cooperative Training – OJT

On-the-job training is appropriate but not required for this course. Whenever offered, the rules, guidelines, and requirements specified in the OJT framework apply.

Accommodations

Federal and state legislation requires the provision of accommodations for students with disabilities as identified on the secondary student's Individual Educational Plan (IEP) or 504 plan or postsecondary student's accommodations' plan to meet individual needs and ensure equal access. Accommodations change the way the student is instructed. Students with disabilities may need accommodations in such areas as instructional methods and materials, assignments and assessments, time demands and schedules, learning environment, assistive technology and special communication systems. Documentation of the accommodations requested and provided should be maintained in a confidential file.

In addition to accommodations, some secondary students with disabilities (students with an IEP served in Exceptional Student Education (ESE)) will need modifications to meet their needs. Modifications change the outcomes or what the student is expected to learn, e.g., modifying the curriculum of a secondary career and technical education course. Note: postsecondary curriculum and regulated secondary programs cannot be modified.

Some secondary students with disabilities (ESE) may need additional time (i.e., longer than the regular school year), to master the student performance standards associated with a regular course or a modified course. If needed, a student may enroll in the same career and technical course more than once. Documentation should be included in the IEP that clearly indicates that it is anticipated that the student may need an additional year to complete a Career and Technical Education (CTE) course. The student should work on different competencies and new applications of competencies each year toward completion of the CTE course. After achieving the competencies identified for the year, the student earns credit for the course. It is important to ensure that credits earned by students are reported accurately. The district's information system must be designed to accept multiple credits for the same course number for eligible students with disabilities.

Curriculum Framework

Program Title: Diving Business and Technology
Career Cluster: Hospitality & Tourism

AAS
CIP Number	0249030400
Program Type	College Credit
Standard Length	62 credit hours
CTSO	N/A
SOC Codes (all applicable)	49-9092 – Commercial Divers
CTE Program Resources	http://www.fldoe.org/academics/career-adult-edu/career-tech-edu/program-resources.stml

Purpose

This program offers a sequence of courses that provides coherent and rigorous content aligned with challenging academic standards and relevant technical knowledge and skills needed to prepare for further education and careers in the Hospitality & Tourism career cluster; provides technical skill proficiency, and includes competency-based applied learning that contributes to the academic knowledge, higher-order reasoning and problem-solving skills, work attitudes, general employability skills, technical skills, and occupation-specific skills, and knowledge of all aspects of the Hospitality & Tourism career cluster.

The content includes but is not limited to develop, operate and manage recreational diving businesses such as those which proliferate Florida and other resort areas, and to perform underwater work in a safe and effective manner. Diving technology career opportunities include research diving, public safety diving, underwater survey and inspection, underwater repair, maintenance and light construction, underwater photography and videography, dive locker management, dive equipment maintenance and sales, training and education, and other jobs. In addition to direct vocational qualification, students will be prepared to pursue upper-level college education and commercial diver training. This program includes courses encompassing progressive certification through recreational diving supervisor and instructor, as well as certifications in diver rescue, diving emergency medicine, dive equipment maintenance and repair, and underwater computer technology. Additional course work encompasses work diving technology, including surface-air-supplied (SAS) diving and hyperbaric chamber operation.

Additional Information relevant to this Career and Technical Education (CTE) program is provided at the end of this document.

Program Structure

This program is a planned sequence of instruction consisting of 62 credit hours.

Standards

After successfully completing this program, the student will be able to perform the following:

Diving Business and Technology Core

- 01.0 Demonstrate scuba diving skills at a proficient level.
- 02.0 Demonstrate the skills required for scuba rescue and emergency medicine.
- 03.0 Identify the business aspects of recreational diving.
- 04.0 Demonstrate the skills required for underwater photography.
- 05.0 Demonstrate the skills required for scuba equipment maintenance and repair.
- 06.0 Demonstrate the skills required for diving using nitrox as a breathing gas mixture.
- 07.0 Demonstrate the skills required for computer based diving.
- 08.0 Demonstrate the skills required for recompression chamber operations.

Professional Research Diving Specialization

- 09.0 Demonstrate the skills required for effective research diving.
- 10.0 Demonstrate proficiency in underwater scientific research and marine data collection methods.

Professional Dive Instructor Specialization

- 11.0 Demonstrate the ability to effectively teach recreational scuba diving.
- 12.0 Demonstrate the skills required to supervise recreational divers.

Introduction to Commercial / Work Diver Specialization

- 13.0 Demonstrate the skills required to supervise working divers.
- 14.0 Demonstrate the skills required to perform underwater work using both scuba and surface air supplied (SAS) diving equipment.

Diving Medical Technician Specialization

- 15.0 Identify blood borne diseases.
- 16.0 Recognize and practice infection control procedures.
- 17.0 Recognize and respond to emergency situations.
- 18.0 Recognize and practice safety and security procedures.
- 19.0 Demonstrate an understanding of and apply wellness and disease concepts.
- 20.0 Demonstrate legal and ethical responsibilities.

 Program Length: 62 credit hours
 SOC Code: 49-9092

At the completion of this program, the student will be able to:

Diving Business and Technology Core

01.0	Demonstrate scuba diving skills at a proficient level. The student will be able to:
01.01	Define Archimedes' Principle and its relationship to buoyancy.
01.02	Identify the gas composition of typical breathing air.
01.03	Define and explain the gas laws as they relate to diver buoyancy, air consumption and their physiological effects upon the diver.
01.04	Explain pressure changes in the air vs. water and their physiological effects upon the diver.
01.05	Explain how divers respond to the effects of water regarding temperature and light.
01.06	Explain cardiopulmonary anatomy and physiology as they relate to the physiological responses of diving.
01.07	Demonstrate the proper selection, care and use of basic scuba equipment including mask, fins, snorkel, buoyancy compensator, cylinder, regulator, instrumentation, exposure protection and weighting system; as well as auxiliary equipment such as knife, light and compass.
01.08	Demonstrate effective pressure equalization techniques during ascent and descent.
01.09	Demonstrate effective methods for entry and exit from the water.
01.10	Demonstrate effective underwater buoyancy control.
01.11	Demonstrate effective surface procedures.
01.12	Demonstrate effective underwater propulsion.
01.13	Demonstrate effective underwater navigation.
01.14	Demonstrate effective surface and underwater communication.
01.15	Demonstrate understanding of decompression theory and planning with both dive tables and planning software.

01.16	Demonstrate effective use of the diver buddy system.
01.17	Demonstrate ability to effectively respond to out-of-air emergencies as both the donor and receiver.
01.18	Identify and describe how to prevent and manage diving medical emergencies.
01.19	Define and explain various diving environments as they relate to both diver safety and environmental preservation.
02.0	Demonstrate the skills required for scuba rescue procedures and emergency first aid. The student will be able to:
02.01	Identify the cause, signs, symptoms, treatment and prevention related to the psychological stress of scuba diving and rescue diving.
02.02	Demonstrate the physical stamina necessary for sustained rescue swimming.
02.03	Demonstrate the ability to recognize potential distressed divers prior to the full expression of an emergency situation.
02.04	Demonstrate the ability to successfully rescue a responsive and unresponsive scuba diver from the surface and underwater.
02.05	Demonstrate the ability to perform rescue breathing on the surface in water too deep to stand in.
02.06	Demonstrate several techniques used to successfully extricate an injured diver from the water.
02.07	Demonstrate the ability to conduct an effective search for a missing diver.
02.08	Demonstrate the effective use of repetitive dive tables in conducting a deep dive rescue.
02.09	Demonstrate the ability to conduct rapid neurological field examinations.
02.10	Demonstrate the ability to choose appropriate oxygen delivery method for an injured diver.
02.11	Demonstrate the skills required for effective field emergency first aid of diving injuries including decompression illness, drowning, temperature related, marine life injuries and conventional trauma.
02.12	Demonstrate the ability to effectively hand off a diving accident victim to the EMS.
02.13	Maintain training and currency in first aid, cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), automated external defibrillator (AED) and emergency oxygen administration.
03.0	Identify the business aspects of recreational diving. The student will be able to:
03.01	Outline the components of a good business plan.
03.02	State the characteristics for an appropriate dive facility location.
03.03	Compare rent vs. purchase benefits when considering facility location.

03.04	Describe the optimum layout for various types of dive facilities.
03.05	Estimate the standard recurring overhead costs for various types of dive facilities.
03.06	Determine the legal and insurance requirements for various types of dive operations.
03.07	Identify the components for an employee policy and procedure manual.
03.08	State the requirements of local, state and federal laws as they apply to the employees of the dive facility.
03.09	Describe the job description, salary range and benefits for each position of various dive facilities.
03.10	Determine the product composition for the retail portion of the dive facility in a given geographic location.
03.11	Describe the training requirements for a good sales force.
03.12	Utilize the DEMA directory to identify dive store suppliers.
03.13	List the techniques that may be used to merchandise the retail stock in the dive shop.
03.14	State the methods of inventory control and their application in the dive store.
03.15	Define margin, profit and cost per square foot as it applies to retail sales.
03.16	Establish a price strategy after considering total fixed and variable costs.
03.17	Describe the legal compliance requirements for a charter dive boat for hire.
03.18	Select the optimum dive boat for various types of diving by comparing hull types, propulsion, capacity, operating costs and special features.
03.19	State the common items that are required or considered industry standard for all boats that charter dive trips.
03.20	Determine fixed and variable costs associated with a boat.
03.21	Compare lease/independent contractor vs. purchase when considering a dive boat.
03.22	Identify equipment repair facility requirements for tools, workspace, repair costs and technician qualifications.
03.23	List all costs and operating requirements for a clean air fill station.
03.24	Describe considerations for rental equipment in a dive facility.
03.25	Estimate the depreciation costs for the service operation of the dive facility.
03.26	Create a dive instruction program based on various customer categories.

03.27	Compare and contrast the different training agencies.
03.28	For a given location, establish a competitive pricing program for dive instruction based on total facility costs and profit expectations.
03.29	Develop an advertising and marketing plan for a hypothetical dive facility.
03.30	Demonstrate how PC based automation can improve the efficiency of a dive facility.
03.31	Estimate the standard and recurring overhead costs to conduct a dive class.
03.32	Compare and contrast the differences between “dive stores” and “dive resorts.”
04.0	Demonstrate the skills required for underwater photography. The student will be able to:
04.01	Identify the components of an underwater camera system.
04.02	Define shutter speed, aperture, depth of field, subject reflectivity, bracketing and available light exposure.
04.03	Describe how the properties of light underwater impact underwater photography.
04.04	Demonstrate an understanding of interaction between camera, lens, shutter, ISO, light and focus.
04.05	Identify the parts of an underwater strobe.
04.06	Describe the application of artificial light to underwater photography.
04.07	Describe composition as it applies to underwater photography.
04.08	Demonstrate proper maintenance of underwater photography equipment.
04.09	Identify the uses of different focal length lens.
04.10	Take a series of photographs underwater then create and present a portfolio.
04.11	Demonstrate the ability to use a photo editing software to edit underwater photographs.
05.0	Demonstrate the skills required for scuba equipment maintenance and repair. The student will be able to:
05.01	Identify the materials used in the construction of buoyancy compensator devices (BCD).
05.02	Identify the cleaning procedures for a BCD.
05.03	Describe and demonstrate common repairs on a BCD.
05.04	Identify the materials used in the construction of a wetsuit.

05.05	Describe the appropriate cleaning and stowing procedures for a wetsuit.
05.06	Describe and demonstrate common repairs on a wetsuit.
05.07	Identify the materials used to construct a regulator first stage.
05.08	Identify the different types of regulator first stage.
05.09	Describe the mechanics of various regulator first stage.
05.10	Identify the common parts of various regulator first stage.
05.11	Explain the process of problem solving different first stage regulator maladyies.
05.12	Identify appropriate tools used for common first stage regulator repairs.
05.13	Identify the correct pressure testing devices for regulator first stage.
05.14	Complete a pressure test on a various regulator first stage.
05.15	Perform first stage regulator repairs.
05.16	Identify the different types of ancillary equipment attached to regulator first stage.
05.17	Identify the different types of regulator second stage.
05.18	Identify the materials used to construct various regulator second stage.
05.19	Explain the functional theory of the different types of regulator second stage.
05.20	Identify the parts of various regulator second stage.
05.21	Explain the process of problem solving different maladyies in regulator second stage.
05.22	Identify appropriate tools used for common second stage regulator repairs.
05.23	Identify the correct testing devices for regulator second stage.
05.24	Perform a pressure test on various regulator second stage.
05.25	Perform common repairs on regulator second stage.
05.26	Identify the materials used in the construction of different types of scuba cylinders.
05.27	Identify the DOT, OSHA, CGA, and scuba industry standards for visual cylinder inspection.

05.28	Identify the DOT standards for hydro testing scuba cylinders.
05.29	Perform a visual inspection on a scuba cylinder.
06.0	Demonstrate the skills required for diving using nitrox as a breathing gas mixture. The student will be able to:
06.01	Define enriched air nitrox (EANx).
06.02	List nitrox advantages and limitations.
06.03	Explain nitrox history and current trends.
06.04	Define central nervous system (CNS) and pulmonary oxygen toxicity.
06.05	Determine the percent of Calculate oxygen exposure.
06.06	Utilize Dalton’s Law to determine partial pressure and maximum operating depth.
06.07	Utilize the best mix equation.
06.08	Demonstrate the ability to use nitrox tables to plan a dive within recreational limits.
06.09	Explain the equivalent air depth concept for recompression therapy and operation.
06.10	Demonstrate how to use a nitrox computer.
06.11	Describe the equipment requirements for nitrox diving.
06.12	Conduct repetitive dives using nitrox mixtures.
06.13	Calculate the partial pressure limit of oxygen for both the Maximum Operating Depth (MOD) and the Contingency Operating Depth (COD) for recreational diving.
06.14	Compare and contrast the systems available for gas blending, their advantages and equipment requirements.
06.15	Blend and analyze an appropriate nitrox mix for a dive within recreational limits.
06.16	List special equipment considerations for deep diving.
07.0	Demonstrate the skills required for computer based diving. The student will be able to:
07.01	Define tissue compartment, half life, M value, nitrogen absorption, controlling compartment, and no decompression limits.
07.02	Describe situations when slow compartments will determine the no decompression limit.

07.03	Describe situations when fast compartments will determine the no decompression limit.
07.04	Describe the limits of decompression theory and current experiments in no-decompression, repetitive, and multi-level diving.
07.05	Describe the differences in the common dive computer algorithm models and state how they affect single and repetitive dive no-decompression limits.
07.06	Demonstrate how to plan a dive using a variety of dive tables.
07.07	Define the purpose of a dive computer and list the data displays shared by all computers.
07.08	Explain why more no-decompression time may become available when ascending to a shallower depth after reaching the no-decompression limit at a deeper depth.
07.09	Compare the performance of different dive computers algorithm models in multi-level diving.
07.10	Explain the recommended procedures for ascent with any dive computer or table.
07.11	Explain why recreational dive computers should be relied upon for limited decompression only.
07.12	Identify the various features to consider when selecting a dive computer for specific dive activities.
07.13	State the safety rules that apply to diving with a dive computer.
07.14	Demonstrate how to operate a dive computer during pre-dive, dive and post-dive modes.
07.15	Describe how to download information from a dive computer to a PC.
07.16	List the considerations for multilevel diving with a dive computer.
07.17	Identify the equipment needed for a multilevel dive and plan a multilevel dive with emergency procedures for computer failure.
08.0	Demonstrate the skills required for recompression chamber operations. The student will be able to:
08.01	Identify the functions of a recompression chamber.
08.02	Identify the different types of recompression chambers.
08.03	Identify the materials that recompression chambers are constructed from.
08.04	Identify the US Coast Guard, ASME PVHO-1 and ADCL, standards required for a recompression chamber.
08.05	Identify the DOT requirements for a recompression chamber.
08.06	Identify the ASME standards for a recompression chamber.

08.07	Identify the NFPA requirements for a recompression chamber.
08.08	Describe the maintenance requirements for a recompression chamber.
08.09	Explain the physiological aspects of running a treatment in a recompression chamber.
08.10	Explain the treatment tables for operating a recompression chamber.
08.11	Calculate the air requirements for running different treatment tables.
08.12	Calculate the oxygen requirement for running different treatment tables.
08.13	Research the medical requirements for running a treatment table.
08.14	Conduct a simulated medical treatment in a recompression chamber.
Professional Research Diving Specialization
09.0	Demonstrate the skills required for effective research diving. The student will be able to:
09.01	List the criteria required for a dive to qualify as a scientific dive under the applicable OSHA exemption.
09.02	Demonstrate scuba diving skills including buoyancy control and navigation at a level that permits safe and effective underwater survey and data collection.
09.03	Explain basic research methodology, including experimental design.
09.04	Describe marine archeological studies as they apply to preserving the fragile cultural artifacts of the Florida Keys.
09.05	Relate marine environmental studies to the preservation of the fragile marine ecosystems and maritime heritage sites of the Florida Keys.
09.06	Demonstrate commonly accepted methods of underwater data collection, recording and preservation procedures for scientific study.
09.07	Demonstrate a basic understanding of the dynamics of natural ecological systems and submerged cultural resources within different depositional environments.
09.08	09.08 Explain the importance of research and non-formal educational organizations in resolving conflicts relative to preserving the natural and cultural resources of the Florida Keys.
10.0	Demonstrate proficiency in underwater scientific research and marine data collection methods. The student will be able to:
10.01	Demonstrate competency in research diving techniques and procedures to support scientific research projects.
10.02	Demonstrate the use of transects and quadrats to quantify the distribution and abundance of sessile marine organisms within a defined research area.
10.03	Demonstrate methodology for basic coral reef health survey protocols.

10.04	Demonstrate commonly accepted methods of underwater data collection, recording and preservation procedures for the scientific study.
10.05	Demonstrate a basic understanding of the statistical principles associated with the experimental design.
10.06	Synthesize what was learned about research diving and other data collection techniques through a presentation, project or case study.
Professional Dive Instructor Specialization
11.0	Demonstrate the ability to effectively teach recreational scuba diving. The student will be able to:
11.01	Identify instructional techniques and learning styles.
11.02	Identify the domains of Bloom's taxonomy.
11.03	Define learning.
11.04	Define teaching.
11.05	Identify the laws of learning.
11.06	Identify factors that enhance learning.
11.07	Identify the elements of oral communication.
11.08	Describe the application of training aids.
11.09	Describe how empathy, motivation, reinforcement, anxiety and fear apply to teaching and learning.
11.10	Identify the components of a classroom presentation.
11.11	Identify the components of a confined water presentation plan.
11.12	Identify the components of an open water presentation plan.
11.13	Prepare and conduct a classroom presentation.
11.14	Prepare and conduct a confined water presentation.
11.15	Prepare and conduct an open water presentation.
11.16	Describe the differences between academic presentations using an instructor-led format and using student-centered active learning and state the advantages and disadvantages of each.
11.17	List 5 types of student-centered active learning exercises and describe an example of each.

11.18	Prepare and conduct a classroom presentation using active learning.
12.0	Demonstrate the skills required to supervise recreational divers. The student will be able to:
12.01	Demonstrate the ability to safely and effectively work with students in training at various levels as an instructional assistant.
12.02	Demonstrate the ability to prepare a group dive plan for recreational divers, including a briefing, dive profiles, safety considerations, contingency and emergency plans.
12.03	Demonstrate the ability to effectively manage a dive from the surface in the local environment which includes boat diving.
12.04	Demonstrate the ability to effectively manage a dive using in-water supervisions.
12.05	Identify the various programs a divemaster may typically conduct in the recreational industry and demonstrate the ability to conduct selected programs.
12.06	Supervise a recreational dive.
12.07	Identify the various elements of management and control of a recreational dive and demonstrate effective utilizations of these elements.
12.08	Identify the correct emergency procedures for a recreational dive.
Introduction to Commercial / Work Diver Specialization
13.0	Demonstrate the skills required to supervise working divers. The student will be able to:
13.01	Identify the various elements of management and control of a working dive and demonstrate effective utilization of these elements.
13.02	Demonstrate the ability to prepare a group dive plan, to include briefing, dive profiles, safety considerations, contingency and emergency plans for a work dive.
13.03	Demonstrate the ability to effectively manage a working dive from the surface in the local environment, which includes boat diving.
13.04	Demonstrate the ability to effectively manage a working dive using both in-water and out of water supervision.
13.05	Identify the ADCI Standards and OSHA requirements for conducting a working dive.
13.06	Identify and utilize appropriate equipment for a working dive.
13.07	Describe and utilize an appropriate work dive station setup.
13.08	Identify the correct emergency procedures for a working dive.
13.09	Identify the operational procedures for conducting a working dive.
13.10	Identify the required documentation for a working dive.

13.11	Supervise a working dive.
14.0	Demonstrate the skills required to perform underwater work using both scuba and surface air supplied (SAS) diving equipment. The student will be able to:
14.01	Identify the industry standards that apply to work diving.
14.02	Distinguish between work diving and recreational scuba diving.
14.03	Identify the appropriate equipment for scuba work diving.
14.04	Identify the correct procedures for scuba work diving.
14.05	Identify the training requirements for scuba work diving.
14.06	Identify environmental concerns for scuba work diving.
14.07	Identify the safety concerns and hazards in the commercial diving industry utilizing scuba.
14.08	Participate in a work dive as both surface support and diver.
14.09	Perform a scuba work dive.
14.10	Identify the industry standards that apply to SAS work diving equipment.
14.11	Distinguish between scuba work diving and SAS work diving.
14.12	Identify the correct equipment for SAS diving.
14.13	Identify the required maintenance for SAS equipment.
14.14	Identify the correct air sources for SAS work diving.
14.15	Identify the correct procedures for SAS diving.
14.16	Identify the training requirements for SAS diving.
14.17	Identify the environmental concerns for SAS diving.
14.18	Identify the required documentation for a SAS work dive.
14.19	Identify the required skills for a SAS work dive.
14.20	Perform a SAS work dive.
14.21	Describe the hazard of Delta P in the commercial diving industry and how to avoid it.

Diving Medical Technician Specialization
15.0	Identify blood borne diseases. The student will be able to:
15.01	Recognize emergency diseases and disorders.
15.02	Distinguish between fact and fallacy about the transmission and treatment of diseases caused by blood borne pathogens including HIV, AIDS and Hepatitis B.
15.03	Identify community resources and services available to the individuals with diseases caused by blood borne pathogens.
15.04	Identify “at risk” behaviors which promote the spread of diseases caused by blood borne pathogens and the public education necessary to combat the spread of these diseases.
15.05	Apply infection control techniques designed to prevent the spread of diseases caused by blood borne pathogens to the care of all patients following Centers for Disease Control (CDC) guidelines.
15.06	Identify the legal aspects of HIV/AIDs, including testing.
16.0	Recognize and practice infection control procedures. The student will be able to:
16.01	Define principles of infection control including standard and transmission based precautions.
16.02	Describe medical and surgical asepsis and practice procedures such as hand-washing and isolation.
16.03	Describe how to dispose correctly of biohazardous materials according to appropriate government guidelines such as OSHA.
17.0	Recognize and respond to emergency situations. The student will be able to:
17.01	Record and monitor vital signs.
17.02	Describe legal parameters relating to the administration of emergency care.
17.03	Obtain and maintain training or certification on cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), automated external defibrillator (AED), emergency oxygen administration and first aid.
17.04	Recognize adverse drug related emergencies and take appropriate first aid action.
18.0	Recognize and practice safety and security procedures. The student will be able to:
18.01	Recognize safe and unsafe working conditions and report safety hazards.
18.02	Demonstrate the safe use of medical equipment.
18.03	Explain and apply the theory of root- cause analysis.
18.04	Identify and describe methods in medical error reduction and prevention in the various healthcare settings.

18.05	Identify and practice security procedures for medical supplies and equipment.
18.06	Demonstrate personal safety procedures based on Occupations Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) and Centers for Disease Control (CDC) regulations including standard precautions.
18.07	Recognize Materials Data Safety Sheets (MSDS) and comply with safety signs, symbols and labels.
18.08	Demonstrate proper lifting techniques through the use of proper body mechanics and ergonomics.
18.09	Demonstrate the procedure for properly identifying patients.
18.10	Demonstrate procedures for the safe transport and transfer of patients.
18.11	Describe fire, safety, disaster and evacuations procedures.
18.12	Discuss The Joint commission patient safety goals (www.jointcommission.org) and any other applicable accrediting/regulatory agency guidelines.
19.0	Demonstrate an understanding of and apply wellness and disease concepts. The student will be able to:
19.01	Describe strategies for prevention of diseases including health screenings and examinations.
19.02	Identify personal health practices and environmental factors which affect optimal function of each of the major body systems
19.03	Identify psychological reactions to illness including defense mechanisms.
19.04	Identify complementary and alternative health practices.
19.05	Discuss the adverse effects of the use of alcohol, tobacco, and both legal and illegal drugs on the human body and apply safety practices related to these and other high risk behaviors.
19.06	Explain the basic concepts of positive self-image, wellness and stress.
19.07	Develop a wellness and stress control plan that can be used in personal and professional life.
19.08	Explore and utilize the U.S. Department of Agriculture's current food guidelines (https://www.dietaryguidelines.gov/).
19.09	Recognize the steps in the grief process.
20.0	Demonstrate legal and ethical responsibilities. The student will be able to:
20.01	Discuss the legal framework of the healthcare occupations including scope of practice legislation.
20.02	Explain practices that could result in malpractice, liability, negligence, abandonment, false imprisonment and fraud.
20.03	Demonstrate procedures for accurate documentation and record keeping.

20.04	Interpret healthcare facility policy and procedures.
20.05	Explain the “Patient’s Bill of Rights”.
20.06	Identify standards of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA).
20.07	Describe advance directives.
20.08	Describe informed consent.
20.09	Explain the laws governing harassment, labor and employment.
20.10	Differentiate between legal and ethical issues in healthcare.
20.11	Describe a code of ethics consistent with the healthcare occupation.
20.12	Identify and compare personal, professional, and organizational ethics.
20.13	Recognize the limits of authority and responsibility of health care workers including legislated scope of practice
20.14	Recognize and report illegal and/or unethical practices of healthcare workers.
20.15	Recognize and report abuse including domestic violence and neglect.
20.16	Distinguish among the five schedules of controlled substances.

Additional Information

Laboratory Activities

Laboratory investigations that include scientific inquiry, research, measurement, problem solving, emerging technologies, tools and equipment, as well as, experimental, quality, and safety procedures are an integral part of this career and technical program/course. Laboratory investigations benefit all students by developing an understanding of the complexity and ambiguity of empirical work, as well as the skills required to manage, operate, calibrate and troubleshoot equipment/tools used to make observations. Students understand measurement error; and have the skills to aggregate, interpret, and present the resulting data. Equipment and supplies should be provided to enhance hands-on experiences for students.

Laboratory activities for this program encompass a wide variety of both physical and natural environments including classrooms, a pool and an open water facility for student teaching; computer stations; equipment repair, storage and distribution areas (dive locker); actual and simulated underwater work stations in open water both inland and offshore; and diver delivery stations on docks, beaches and boats. Cooperative arrangements with local businesses allow advanced students to interact with real customers in the actual working environment. Laboratory activities range from basic motor skill development through the performance of complex underwater tasks, as well as diving supervision and teaching. Students participate in actual underwater work projects and serve as teaching assistants in actual courses. Equipment employed in laboratory activities includes both scuba and SAS diving equipment including helmets, umbilicals and compressors; wet and dry exposure suits; wireless and hard-wire underwater communications equipment; harnesses and tethers; and underwater computers, hand tools, cameras and other research instruments. The primary laboratory, an on-campus, open water, all weather underwater training area (UTA), contains abundant marine life, archeological artifacts (timbers from an actual treasure galleon) a sunken boat, submerged vehicles including a school bus, a large aeration system, and several work diving simulators. The UTA is served by a hard-wire underwater communications system that enables surface personnel to interact directly with those underwater.

Special Notes

The State of Florida is the world's leading employer in the business of recreational diving. Many of these businesses, along with other employers of underwater workers, are represented on the AAS Degree Advisory Committee for Diving Business and Technology. Classes involving diving are sometimes conducted at the site of these businesses, which represent a regular source of employment of students, often even before completion of their degree. Interaction with special classes conducted regularly for diving employees of such agencies as the Florida Department of Transportation, South Florida Water Management District, public safety agencies, and Federal agencies such as the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers provide degree-seeking students with an opportunity for first-hand experience with careers in diving technology.

General Education Course Requirements for AS and AAS Degrees

State Board of Education Rule 6A-14.030 (4) F.A.C. identifies 15 credit hours as the minimum amount of general education coursework required in the Associate of Science degree and the Associate of Applied Science degree. In addition, Rule 6A-14.0303 FAC implements section 1007.25 Florida Statutes and requires students entering a technical education degree program in the 2022-2023 academic year, and thereafter, to complete at least one identified core course in each subject area as part of the general education course requirements (15 credit hours total) before a degree is awarded) The core subject areas include:

- Communication.
- Humanities.

- Mathematics.
- Natural Sciences.
- Social Sciences.

Accommodations

Federal and state legislation requires the provision of accommodations for students with disabilities to meet individual needs and ensure equal access. Postsecondary students with disabilities must self-identify, present documentation, request accommodations if needed, and develop a plan with their counselor and/or instructors. Accommodations received in postsecondary education may differ from those received in secondary education. Accommodations change the way the student is instructed. Students with disabilities may need accommodations in such areas as instructional methods and materials, assignments and assessments, time demands and schedules, learning environment, assistive technology and special communication systems. Documentation of the accommodations requested and provided should be maintained in a confidential file.

Certificate Programs

A College Credit Certificate consists of a program of instruction of less than sixty (60) credits of college-level courses, which is part of an AS or AAS degree program and prepares students for entry into employment (Rule 6A-14.030, F.A.C.). This AAS degree program includes the following College Credit Certificates:

- Diving Medical Technician (0249030402) – 14 credit hours
- Fundamentals of Professional Diving (0249030404) – 17 credit hours
- Introduction to Commercial/Work Diving (0249030405) – 10 credit hours
- Professional Dive Instructor (0249030403) – 15 credit hours
- Professional Research Diving (0249030401) – 14 credit hours

Standards for the above certificate programs are contained in separate curriculum frameworks.

Purpose

This certificate program is part of the Diving Business and Technology AAS degree program (0249030400).

A College Credit Certificate consists of a program of instruction of less than sixty (60) credits of college-level courses, which is part of an AS or AAS degree program and prepares students for entry into employment (Rule 6A-14.030, F.A.C.).

This program offers a sequence of courses that provides coherent and rigorous content aligned with challenging academic standards and relevant technical knowledge and skills needed to prepare for further education and careers in the Hospitality & Tourism career cluster; provides technical skill proficiency, and includes competency-based applied learning that contributes to the academic knowledge, higher-order reasoning and problem-solving skills, work attitudes, general employability skills, technical skills, and occupation-specific skills, and knowledge of all aspects of the Hospitality & Tourism career cluster.

The content includes but is not limited to coursework that will prepare students for career in research diving. In addition to direct vocational qualification, courses taken in this certificate are applicable to an AAS in Diving Business and Technology.

Additional Information relevant to this Career and Technical Education (CTE) program is provided at the end of this document.

Standards

After successfully completing this program, the student will be able to perform the following:

- 01.0 Demonstrate scuba diving skills at a proficient level.
- 02.0 Demonstrate the skills required for effective research diving.
- 03.0 Demonstrate proficiency in underwater scientific research and marine data collection methods.

Program Title: Professional Research Diving
CIP Number: 0249030401
Program Length: 14 credit hours
SOC Code: 49-9092

This certificate program is part of the Diving Business and Technology AAS degree program (0249030400). At the completion of this program, the student will be able to:

01.0	Demonstrate scuba diving skills at a proficient level. The student will be able to:
01.01	Demonstrate the proper selection, care and use of basic scuba equipment including mask, fins, snorkel, buoyancy compensator, cylinder, regulator, instrumentation, exposure protection and weighting system; as well as auxiliary equipment such as knife, light and compass.
01.02	Demonstrate effective pressure equalization techniques during ascent and descent.
01.03	Demonstrate effective methods for entry and exit from the water.
01.04	Demonstrate effective underwater buoyancy control.
01.05	Demonstrate effective surface procedures.
01.06	Demonstrate effective underwater propulsion.
01.07	Demonstrate effective underwater navigation.
01.08	Demonstrate effective surface and underwater communication.
01.09	Demonstrate understanding of decompression theory and planning with both dive tables and planning software.
01.10	Demonstrate effective use of the diver buddy system.
01.11	Demonstrate ability to effectively respond to out-of-air emergencies as both the donor and receiver.
02.0	Demonstrate the skills required for effective research diving. The student will be able to:
02.01	Demonstrate scuba diving skills including buoyancy control and navigation at a level that permits safe and effective underwater survey and data collection.
02.02	Explain basic research methodology, including experimental design.
02.03	Describe marine archeological studies as they apply to preserving the fragile cultural artifacts and maritime heritage sites of the Florida Keys.

02.04	Relate marine environmental studies to the preservation of the fragile marine ecosystems of the Florida Keys.
02.05	Demonstrate commonly accepted methods of underwater data collection, recording and preservation procedures for scientific study.
02.06	Demonstrate a basic understanding of the dynamics of natural ecological systems and submerged cultural resources within different depositional environments.
02.07	Explain the importance of research and non-formal educational organizations in resolving conflicts relative to preserving the natural and cultural resources of the Florida Keys.
03.0	Demonstrate proficiency in underwater scientific research and marine data collection methods. The student will be able to:
03.01	Demonstrate competency in research diving techniques and procedures to support scientific research projects.
03.02	Demonstrate the use of transects and quadrats to quantify the distribution and abundance of sessile marine organisms within a defined research area.
03.03	Demonstrate methodology for basic coral reef health survey protocols.
03.04	Demonstrate commonly accepted methods of underwater data collection, recording and preservation procedures for the scientific study.
03.05	Demonstrate a basic understanding of the statistical principles associated with the experimental design.
03.06	Synthesize what was learned about research diving and other data collection techniques through a presentation, project or case study.

This certificate program is part of the Diving Business and Technology AAS degree program (0249030400). At the completion of this program, the student will be able to:

01.0	Demonstrate scuba diving skills at a proficient level. The student will be able to:
01.01	Identify the gas composition of typical breathing air.
01.02	Define and explain the gas laws as they relate to diver buoyancy, air consumption and their physiological effects upon the diver.
01.03	Explain pressure changes in the air vs. water and their physiological effects upon the diver.
01.04	Explain cardiopulmonary anatomy and physiology as they relate to the physiological responses of diving.
02.0	Demonstrate the skills required for scuba rescue procedures and emergency first aid. The student will be able to:
02.01	Demonstrate the skills required for effective field emergency first aid of diving injuries including decompression illness, drowning, temperature related, marine life injuries and conventional trauma.
02.02	Demonstrate the ability to choose appropriate oxygen delivery method for an injured diver.
02.03	Demonstrate the ability to successfully rescue a responsive and unresponsive scuba diver from the surface and underwater.
02.04	Demonstrate the ability to conduct rapid neurological field examinations.
03.0	Demonstrate the skills required for recompression chamber operations. The student will be able to:
03.01	Identify the functions of a recompression chamber.
03.02	Identify the different types of recompression chambers.
03.03	Identify the materials that recompression chambers are constructed from.
03.04	Explain the physiological aspects of running a treatment in a recompression chamber.
03.05	Explain the treatment tables for operating a recompression chamber.
03.06	Calculate the air requirements for running a treatment in a recompression chamber.

03.07	Calculate the oxygen requirement for running different treatment tables.
03.08	Research the medical requirements for running a treatment table.
03.09	Conduct a simulated medical treatment in a recompression chamber.
04.0	Identify blood borne diseases. The student will be able to:
04.01	Recognize emergency diseases and disorders.
04.02	Distinguish between fact and fallacy about the transmission and treatment of diseases caused by blood borne pathogens including HIV, AIDS and Hepatitis B.

After successfully completing this program, the student will be able to perform the following:

- 01.0 Demonstrate scuba diving skills at a proficient level.
- 02.0 Demonstrate the skills required for scuba rescue and emergency medicine.
- 03.0 Demonstrate the ability to effectively teach recreational scuba diving.
- 04.0 Identify the business aspects of recreational diving.
- 05.0 Demonstrate the skills required for computer based diving.
- 06.0 Demonstrate the skills required to supervise recreational divers.

Program Title: Professional Dive Instructor
 CIP Number: 0249030403
 Program Length: 15 credit hours
 SOC Code: 49-9092

This certificate program is part of the Diving Business and Technology AAS degree program (0249030400). At the completion of this program, the student will be able to:

01.0	Demonstrate scuba diving skills at a proficient level. The student will be able to:
01.01	Define Archimedes' Principle and its relationship to buoyancy.
01.02	Identify the gas composition of typical breathing air.
01.03	Define and explain the gas laws as they relate to diver buoyancy, air consumption and their physiological effects upon the diver.
01.04	Explain pressure changes in the air vs. water and their physiological effects upon the diver.
01.05	Explain how divers respond to the effects of water regarding temperature and light.
01.06	Explain cardiopulmonary anatomy and physiology as they relate to the physiological responses of diving.
01.07	Demonstrate the proper selection, care and use of basic scuba equipment including mask, fins, snorkel, buoyancy compensator, cylinder, regulator, instrumentation, exposure protection and weighting system; as well as auxiliary equipment such as knife, light and compass.
01.08	Demonstrate effective pressure equalization techniques during ascent and descent.
01.09	Demonstrate effective methods for entry and exit from the water.
01.10	Demonstrate effective underwater buoyancy control.
01.11	Demonstrate effective surface procedures.
01.12	Demonstrate effective underwater propulsion.
01.13	Demonstrate effective underwater navigation.
01.14	Demonstrate effective surface and underwater communication.
01.15	Demonstrate understanding of decompression theory and planning with both dive tables and planning software.

01.16	Demonstrate effective use of the diver buddy system.
01.17	Demonstrate ability to effectively respond to out-of-air emergencies as both the donor and receiver.
01.18	Identify and describe how to prevent and manage diving medical emergencies.
01.19	Define and explain various diving environments as they relate to both diver safety and environmental preservation.
02.0	Demonstrate the skills required for scuba rescue and emergency medicine. The student will be able to:
02.01	Identify the cause, signs, symptoms, treatment and prevention related to the psychological stress of scuba diving and rescue diving.
02.02	Demonstrate the physical stamina necessary for sustained rescue swimming.
02.03	Demonstrate the ability to recognize potential distressed divers prior to the full expression of an emergency situation.
02.04	Demonstrate the ability to successfully rescue a responsive and unresponsive scuba diver from the surface and underwater.
02.05	Demonstrate the ability to perform rescue breathing on the surface in water too deep to stand in.
02.06	Demonstrate several techniques used to successfully extricate an injured diver from the water.
02.07	Demonstrate the ability to conduct an effective search for a missing diver.
02.08	Demonstrate the effective use of repetitive dive tables in conducting a deep dive rescue.
02.09	Demonstrate the ability to conduct rapid neurological field examinations.
02.10	Demonstrate the ability to choose appropriate oxygen delivery method for an injured diver.
02.11	Demonstrate the skills required for effective field emergency first aid of diving injuries including decompression illness, drowning, temperature related, marine life injuries and conventional trauma.
02.12	Demonstrate the ability to effectively hand off a diving accident victim to the EMS.
02.13	Maintain training and currency in first aid, cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), automated external defibrillator (AED) and emergency oxygen administration.
03.0	Demonstrate the ability to effectively teach recreational scuba diving. The student will be able to:
03.01	Identify instructional techniques and learning styles.
03.02	Identify the domains of Bloom’s taxonomy.
03.03	Define learning.

03.04	Define teaching.
03.05	Identify the laws of learning.
03.06	Identify factors that enhance learning.
03.07	Identify the elements of oral communication.
03.08	Describe the application of training aids.
03.09	Describe how empathy, motivation, reinforcement, anxiety and fear apply to teaching and learning.
03.10	Identify the components of a classroom presentation.
03.11	Identify the components of a confined water presentation plan.
03.12	Identify the components of an open water presentation plan.
03.13	Prepare and conduct a classroom presentation.
03.14	Prepare and conduct a confined water presentation.
03.15	Prepare and conduct an open water presentation.
04.0	Identify the business aspects of recreational diving. The student will be able to:
04.01	Identify instructional techniques and learning styles.
04.02	Identify the domains of Bloom’s taxonomy.
04.03	Define learning.
04.04	Define teaching.
04.05	Identify the laws of learning.
04.06	Identify factors that enhance learning.
04.07	Identify the elements of oral communication.
04.08	Describe the application of training aids.
04.09	Describe how empathy, motivation, reinforcement, anxiety and fear apply to teaching and learning.
04.10	Identify the components of a classroom presentation.

04.11	Identify the components of a confined water presentation plan.
04.12	Identify the components of an open water presentation plan.
04.13	Prepare and conduct a classroom presentation.
04.14	Prepare and conduct a confined water presentation.
04.15	Prepare and conduct an open water presentation.
04.16	Describe the differences between academic presentations using an instructor-led format and using student-centered active learning and state the advantages and disadvantages of each.
04.17	List 5 types of student-centered active learning exercises and describe an example of each.
04.18	Prepare and conduct a classroom presentation using active learning.
05.0	Demonstrate the skills required for computer based diving. The student will be able to:
05.01	Define tissue compartment, half life, M value, nitrogen absorption, controlling compartment, and no decompression limits.
05.02	Describe situations when slow compartments will determine the no decompression limit.
05.03	Describe situations when fast compartments will determine the no decompression limit.
05.04	Describe the limits of decompression theory and current experiments in no-decompression, repetitive, and multi-level diving
05.05	Define multilevel diving.
05.06	Explain why more decompression time may become available when ascending to a shallower depth after reaching the no-decompression limit at a deeper depth.
05.07	Explain the recommended procedures for ascent with any dive computer or table.
06.0	Demonstrate the skills required to supervise recreational divers. The student will be able to:
06.01	Demonstrate the ability to safely and effectively work with students in training at various levels as an instructional assistant.
06.02	Demonstrate the ability to prepare a group dive plan for recreational divers, including a briefing, dive profiles, safety considerations, contingency and emergency plans.
06.03	Demonstrate the ability to effectively manage a dive from the surface in the local environment which includes boat diving.
06.04	Demonstrate the ability to effectively manage a dive using in-water supervisions.
06.05	Identify the various programs a divemaster may typically conduct in the recreational industry and demonstrate the ability to conduct selected programs.

06.06	Supervise a recreational dive.
06.07	Identify the various elements of management and control of a recreational dive and demonstrate effective utilizations of these elements.
06.08	Identify the correct emergency procedures for a recreational dive.

Additional Information

Laboratory Activities

Laboratory investigations that include scientific inquiry, research, measurement, problem solving, emerging technologies, tools and equipment, as well as, experimental, quality, and safety procedures are an integral part of this career and technical program/course. Laboratory investigations benefit all students by developing an understanding of the complexity and ambiguity of empirical work, as well as the skills required to manage, operate, calibrate and troubleshoot equipment/tools used to make observations. Students understand measurement error; and have the skills to aggregate, interpret, and present the resulting data. Equipment and supplies should be provided to enhance hands-on experiences for students.

Laboratory activities for this program encompass a wide variety of both physical and natural environments including classrooms, a pool and an open water facility for student teaching; computer stations; equipment repair, storage and distribution areas (dive locker); actual and simulated underwater work stations in open water both inland and offshore; and diver delivery stations on docks, beaches and boats. Cooperative arrangements with local businesses allow advanced students to interact with real customers in the actual working environment. Laboratory activities range from basic motor skill development through the performance of complex underwater tasks, as well as diving supervision and teaching. Students participate in actual underwater work projects and serve as teaching assistants in actual courses. The primary laboratory, an on-campus, open water, all weather underwater training area (UTA), contains abundant marine life, archeological artifacts (timbers from an actual treasure galleon) a sunken boat, submerged vehicles including a school bus, a large aeration system, and several work diving simulators.

Special Notes

The State of Florida is the world's leading employer in the business of recreational diving. Many of these businesses, along with other employers of underwater workers, are represented on the A.A.S. Degree Advisory Committee for Diving Business and Technology. Classes involving diving sometimes are conducted at the site of these businesses, which represent a regular source of employment of students, often even before completion of their degree. Interaction with special classes conducted regularly for diving employees of such agencies as the Florida Department of Transportation, South Florida Water Management District, public safety agencies, and Federal agencies such as the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers provide degree-seeking students with an opportunity for first-hand experience with careers in diving technology.

Accommodations

02.08	Demonstrate the effective use of repetitive dive tables in conducting a deep dive rescue.
02.09	Demonstrate the ability to conduct rapid neurological field examinations.
02.10	Demonstrate the ability to choose appropriate oxygen delivery method for an injured diver.
02.11	Demonstrate the skills required for effective field emergency first aid of diving injuries including decompression illness, drowning, temperature related, marine life injuries and conventional trauma.
02.12	Demonstrate the ability to effectively hand off a diving accident victim to the EMS.
02.13	Maintain training and currency in first aid, cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), automated external defibrillator (AED) and emergency oxygen administration.
03.0	Demonstrate the skills required for underwater photography. The student will be able to:
03.01	Identify the components of an underwater camera system.
03.02	Define shutter speed, aperture, depth of field, subject reflectivity, bracketing and available light exposure.
03.03	Describe how the properties of light underwater impact underwater photography.
03.04	Demonstrate an understanding of interaction between camera, lens, shutter, ISO, light and focus.

03.05	Identify the parts of an underwater strobe.
03.06	Describe the application of artificial light to underwater photography.
03.07	Describe composition as it applies to underwater photography.
03.08	Demonstrate proper maintenance of underwater photography equipment.
03.09	Identify the uses of different focal length lens.
03.10	Take a series of photographs underwater then create and present a portfolio.
04.0	Demonstrate the skills required for scuba equipment maintenance and repair. The student will be able to:
04.01	Identify the materials used in the construction of buoyancy compensator devices (BCD).
04.02	Identify the cleaning procedures for a BCD.
04.03	Describe and demonstrate common repairs on a BCD.
04.04	Identify the materials used in the construction of a wetsuit.
04.05	Describe the appropriate cleaning and stowing procedures for a wetsuit.
04.06	Describe and demonstrate common repairs on a wetsuit.
04.07	Identify the materials used to construct a regulator first stage.
04.08	Identify the different types of regulator first stage.
04.09	Describe the mechanics of various regulator first stage.
04.10	Identify the common parts of various regulator first stage.
04.11	Explain the process of problem solving different first stage regulator maladies.
04.12	Identify appropriate tools used for common first stage regulator repairs.
04.13	Identify the correct pressure testing devices for regulator first stage.
04.14	Complete a pressure test on a various regulator first stage.
04.15	Perform first stage regulator repairs.
04.16	Identify the different types of ancillary equipment attached to regulator first stage.

04.17	Identify the different types of regulator second stage.
04.18	Identify the materials used to construct various regulator second stage.
04.19	Explain the functional theory of the different types of regulator second stage.
04.20	Identify the parts of various regulator second stage.
04.21	Explain the process of problem solving different maladies in regulator second stage.
04.22	Identify appropriate tools used for common second stage regulator repairs.
04.23	Identify the correct testing devices for regulator second stage.
04.24	Perform a pressure test on various regulator second stage.
04.25	Perform common repairs on regulator second stage.
04.26	Identify the materials used in the construction of different types of scuba cylinders.
04.27	Identify the DOT, OSHA, CGA, and scuba industry standards for visual cylinder inspection.
04.28	Identify the DOT standards for hydro testing scuba cylinders.
04.29	Perform a visual inspection on a scuba cylinder.
05.0	Demonstrate the skills required for diving using nitrox as a breathing gas mixture. The student will be able to:
05.01	Define enriched air nitrox (EANx).
05.02	List nitrox advantages and limitations.
05.03	Explain nitrox history and current trends.
05.04	Define central nervous system (CNS) and pulmonary oxygen toxicity.
05.05	Determine the percent of Calculate oxygen exposure.
05.06	Utilize Dalton’s Law to determine partial pressure and maximum operating depth.
05.07	Utilize the best mix equation.
05.08	Demonstrate the ability to use nitrox tables to plan a dive within recreational limits.
05.09	Explain the equivalent air depth concept for recompression therapy and operation.

05.10	Demonstrate how to use a nitrox computer.
05.11	Describe the equipment requirements for nitrox diving.
05.12	Conduct repetitive dives using nitrox mixtures.
05.13	Calculate the partial pressure limit of oxygen for both the Maximum Operating Depth (MOD) and the Contingency Operating Depth (COD) for recreational diving.
05.14	Compare and contrast the systems available for gas blending, their advantages and equipment requirements.
05.15	Blend and analyze an appropriate nitrox mix for a dive within recreational limits.
05.16	List special equipment considerations for deep diving.
06.0	Demonstrate the skills required for computer based diving. The student will be able to:
06.01	Define tissue compartment, half life, M value, nitrogen absorption, controlling compartment, and no decompression limits.
06.02	Describe situations when slow compartments will determine the no decompression limit.
06.03	Describe situations when fast compartments will determine the no decompression limit.
06.04	Describe the limits of decompression theory and current experiments in no-decompression, repetitive, and multi-level diving.
06.05	Describe the differences in the common dive computer algorithm models and state how they affect single and repetitive dive no-decompression limits.
06.06	Demonstrate how to plan a dive using a variety of dive tables.
06.07	Define the purpose of a dive computer and list the data displays shared by all computers.
06.08	Explain why more no-decompression time may become available when ascending to a shallower depth after reaching the no-decompression limit at a deeper depth.
06.09	Compare the performance of different dive computers algorithm models in multi-level diving.
06.10	Explain the recommended procedures for ascent with any dive computer or table.
06.11	Explain why recreational dive computers should be relied upon for limited decompression only.
06.12	Identify the various features to consider when selecting a dive computer for specific dive activities.
06.13	State the safety rules that apply to diving with a dive computer.
06.14	Demonstrate how to operate a dive computer during pre-dive, dive and post-dive modes.

06.15	Describe how to download information from a dive computer to a PC.
06.16	List the considerations for multilevel diving with a dive computer.
06.17	Identify the equipment needed for a multilevel dive and plan a multilevel dive with emergency procedures for computer failure.
07.0	Demonstrate the skills required for recompression chamber operations. The student will be able to:
07.01	Identify the functions of a recompression chamber.
07.02	Identify the different types of recompression chambers.
07.03	Identify the materials that recompression chambers are constructed from.
07.04	Identify the US Coast Guard, ASME PVHO-1 and ADCI, standards required for a recompression chamber.
07.05	Identify the DOT requirements for a recompression chamber.
07.06	Identify the ASME standards for a recompression chamber.
07.07	Identify the NFPA requirements for a recompression chamber.
07.08	Describe the maintenance requirements for a recompression chamber.
07.09	Explain the physiological aspects of running a treatment in a recompression chamber.
07.10	Explain the treatment tables for operating a recompression chamber.
07.11	Calculate the air requirements for running different treatment tables.
07.12	Calculate the oxygen requirement for running different treatment tables.
07.13	Research the medical requirements for running a treatment table.
07.14	Conduct a simulated medical treatment in a recompression chamber.

Additional Information

Laboratory Activities

Laboratory investigations that include scientific inquiry, research, measurement, problem solving, emerging technologies, tools and equipment, as well as, experimental, quality, and safety procedures are an integral part of this career and technical program/course. Laboratory investigations benefit all students by developing an understanding of the complexity and ambiguity of empirical work, as well as the skills required to manage, operate, calibrate and troubleshoot equipment/tools used to make observations. Students understand measurement error; and have the skills to aggregate, interpret, and present the resulting data. Equipment and supplies should be provided to enhance hands-on experiences for students.

Laboratory activities for this program encompass a wide variety of both physical and natural environments including classrooms, a pool and an open water facility for student teaching; computer stations, actual and simulated underwater work stations in open water both inland and offshore; and diver delivery stations on docks, beaches and boats. Cooperative arrangements with local businesses allow advanced students to interact with real customers in the actual working environment. Laboratory activities range from basic motor skill development through the performance of complex underwater tasks. Students participate in actual underwater work projects and serve as teaching assistants in actual courses. Equipment employed in laboratory activities includes both scuba and SAS diving equipment including helmets, umbilicals and compressors; wet and dry exposure suits; wireless and hard-wire underwater communications equipment; harnesses and tethers; and underwater computers. The primary laboratory, an on-campus, open water, all weather underwater training area (UTA), contains abundant marine life, archeological artifacts (timbers from an actual treasure galleon) a sunken boat, submerged vehicles including a school bus, a large aeration system, and several work diving simulators.

Special Notes

The State of Florida is the world's leading employer in the business of recreational diving. Many of these businesses, along with other employers of underwater workers, are represented on the A.A.S. Degree Advisory Committee for Diving Business and Technology. Classes involving diving are sometimes conducted at the site of these businesses, which represent a regular source of employment of students, often even before completion of their degree. Interaction with special classes conducted regularly for diving employees of such agencies as the Florida Department of Transportation, South Florida Water Management District, public safety agencies, and Federal agencies such as the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers provide degree-seeking students with an opportunity for first-hand experience with careers in diving technology.

Accommodations

Federal and state legislation requires the provision of accommodations for students with disabilities to meet individual needs and ensure equal access. Postsecondary students with disabilities must self-identify, present documentation, request accommodations if needed, and develop a plan with their counselor and/or instructors. Accommodations received in postsecondary education may differ from those received in secondary education. Accommodations change the way the student is instructed. Students with disabilities may need accommodations in such areas as instructional methods and materials, assignments and assessments, time demands and schedules, learning environment, assistive technology and special communication systems. Documentation of the accommodations requested and provided should be maintained in a confidential file.

Laboratory Activities

Laboratory investigations that include scientific inquiry, research, measurement, problem solving, emerging technologies, tools and equipment, as well as, experimental, quality, and safety procedures are an integral part of this career and technical program/course. Laboratory investigations benefit all students by developing an understanding of the complexity and ambiguity of empirical work, as well as the skills required to manage, operate, calibrate and troubleshoot equipment/tools used to make observations. Students understand measurement error; and have the skills to aggregate, interpret, and present the resulting data. Equipment and supplies should be provided to enhance hands-on experiences for students.

Career and Technical Student Organization (CTSO)

SkillsUSA and Collegiate DECA, an association of marketing students, are the intercurricular career and technical student organizations providing leadership training and reinforcing specific career and technical skills. Career and Technical Student Organizations provide activities for students as an integral part of the instruction offered.

Accommodations

Federal and state legislation requires the provision of accommodations for students with disabilities to meet individual needs and ensure equal access. Postsecondary students with disabilities must self-identify, present documentation, request accommodations if needed, and develop a plan with their counselor and/or instructors. Accommodations received in postsecondary education may differ from those received in secondary education. Accommodations change the way the student is instructed. Students with disabilities may need accommodations in such areas as instructional methods and materials, assignments and assessments, time demands and schedules, learning environment, assistive technology and special communication systems. Documentation of the accommodations requested and provided should be maintained in a confidential file.

Laboratory Activities

Laboratory investigations that include scientific inquiry, research, measurement, problem solving, emerging technologies, tools and equipment, as well as, experimental, quality, and safety procedures are an integral part of this career and technical program/course. Laboratory investigations benefit all students by developing an understanding of the complexity and ambiguity of empirical work, as well as the skills required to manage, operate, calibrate and troubleshoot equipment/tools used to make observations. Students understand measurement error; and have the skills to aggregate, interpret, and present the resulting data. Equipment and supplies should be provided to enhance hands-on experiences for students.

Career and Technical Student Organization (CTSO)

SkillsUSA and Collegiate DECA, an association of marketing students, are the intercurricular career and technical student organizations providing leadership training and reinforcing specific career and technical skills. Career and Technical Student Organizations provide activities for students as an integral part of the instruction offered.

Accommodations

Federal and state legislation requires the provision of accommodations for students with disabilities to meet individual needs and ensure equal access. Postsecondary students with disabilities must self-identify, present documentation, request accommodations if needed, and develop a plan with their counselor and/or instructors. Accommodations received in postsecondary education may differ from those received in secondary education. Accommodations change the way the student is instructed. Students with disabilities may need accommodations in such areas as instructional methods and materials, assignments and assessments, time demands and schedules, learning environment, assistive technology and special communication systems. Documentation of the accommodations requested and provided should be maintained in a confidential file.

Additional Information

Laboratory Activities

Laboratory investigations that include scientific inquiry, research, measurement, problem solving, emerging technologies, tools and equipment, as well as, experimental, quality, and safety procedures are an integral part of this career and technical program/course. Laboratory investigations benefit all students by developing an understanding of the complexity and ambiguity of empirical work, as well as the skills required to manage, operate, calibrate and troubleshoot equipment/tools used to make observations. Students understand measurement error; and have the skills to aggregate, interpret, and present the resulting data. Equipment and supplies should be provided to enhance hands-on experiences for students.

Career and Technical Student Organization (CTSO)

SkillsUSA and Collegiate DECA, an association of marketing students, are the intercurricular career and technical student organizations providing leadership training and reinforcing specific career and technical skills. Career and Technical Student Organizations provide activities for students as an integral part of the instruction offered.

Accommodations

Federal and state legislation requires the provision of accommodations for students with disabilities to meet individual needs and ensure equal access. Postsecondary students with disabilities must self-identify, present documentation, request accommodations if needed, and develop a plan with their counselor and/or instructors. Accommodations received in postsecondary education may differ from those received in secondary education. Accommodations change the way the student is instructed. Students with disabilities may need accommodations in such areas as instructional methods and materials, assignments and assessments, time demands and schedules, learning environment, assistive technology and special communication systems. Documentation of the accommodations requested and provided should be maintained in a confidential file.

Additional Information

Laboratory Activities

Laboratory investigations that include scientific inquiry, research, measurement, problem solving, emerging technologies, tools and equipment, as well as, experimental, quality, and safety procedures are an integral part of this career and technical program/course. Laboratory investigations benefit all students by developing an understanding of the complexity and ambiguity of empirical work, as well as the skills required to manage, operate, calibrate and troubleshoot equipment/tools used to make observations. Students understand measurement error; and have the skills to aggregate, interpret, and present the resulting data. Equipment and supplies should be provided to enhance hands-on experiences for students.

Career and Technical Student Organization (CTSO)

SkillsUSA is the inter-curricular career and technical student organization providing leadership training and reinforcing specific career and technical skills. Career and Technical Student Organizations provide activities for students as an integral part of the instruction offered.

Accommodations

Federal and state legislation requires the provision of accommodations for students with disabilities to meet individual needs and ensure equal access. Postsecondary students with disabilities must self-identify, present documentation, request accommodations if needed, and develop a plan with their counselor and/or instructors. Accommodations received in postsecondary education may differ from those received in secondary education. Accommodations change the way the student is instructed. Students with disabilities may need accommodations in such areas as instructional methods and materials, assignments and assessments, time demands and schedules, learning environment, assistive technology and special communication systems. Documentation of the accommodations requested and provided should be maintained in a confidential file.

Laboratory Activities

Laboratory investigations that include scientific inquiry, research, measurement, problem solving, emerging technologies, tools and equipment, as well as, experimental, quality, and safety procedures are an integral part of this career and technical program/course. Laboratory investigations benefit all students by developing an understanding of the complexity and ambiguity of empirical work, as well as the skills required to manage, operate, calibrate and troubleshoot equipment/tools used to make observations. Students understand measurement error; and have the skills to aggregate, interpret, and present the resulting data. Equipment and supplies should be provided to enhance hands-on experiences for students.

Career and Technical Student Organization (CTSO)

SkillsUSA is the inter-curricular career and technical student organization providing leadership training and reinforcing specific career and technical skills. Career and Technical Student Organizations provide activities for students as an integral part of the instruction offered.

Accommodations

Federal and state legislation requires the provision of accommodations for students with disabilities to meet individual needs and ensure equal access. Postsecondary students with disabilities must self-identify, present documentation, request accommodations if needed, and develop a plan with their counselor and/or instructors. Accommodations received in postsecondary education may differ from those received in secondary education. Accommodations change the way the student is instructed. Students with disabilities may need accommodations in such areas as instructional methods and materials, assignments and assessments, time demands and schedules, learning environment, assistive technology and special communication systems. Documentation of the accommodations requested and provided should be maintained in a confidential file.

Additional Information

Laboratory Activities

Laboratory investigations that include scientific inquiry, research, measurement, problem solving, emerging technologies, tools and equipment, as well as, experimental, quality, and safety procedures are an integral part of this career and technical program/course. Laboratory investigations benefit all students by developing an understanding of the complexity and ambiguity of empirical work, as well as the skills required to manage, operate, calibrate and troubleshoot equipment/tools used to make observations. Students understand measurement error; and have the skills to aggregate, interpret, and present the resulting data. Equipment and supplies should be provided to enhance hands-on experiences for students.

Additional Information

Laboratory Activities

Laboratory investigations that include scientific inquiry, research, measurement, problem solving, emerging technologies, tools and equipment, as well as, experimental, quality, and safety procedures are an integral part of this career and technical program/course. Laboratory investigations benefit all students by developing an understanding of the complexity and ambiguity of empirical work, as well as the skills required to manage, operate, calibrate and troubleshoot equipment/tools used to make observations. Students understand measurement error; and have the skills to aggregate, interpret, and present the resulting data. Equipment and supplies should be provided to enhance hands-on experiences for students.

Special Notes

General Education Course Requirements for AS and AAS Degrees

State Board of Education Rule 6A-14.030 (4) F.A.C. identifies 15 credit hours as the minimum amount of general education coursework required in the Associate of Science degree and the Associate of Applied Science degree. In addition, Rule 6A-14.0303 FAC implements section 1007.25 Florida Statutes and requires students entering a technical education degree program in the 2022-2023 academic year, and thereafter, to complete at least one identified core course in each subject area as part of the general education course requirements (15 credit hours total) before a degree is awarded) The core subject areas include:

- Communication.
- Humanities.
- Mathematics.
- Natural Sciences.
- Social Sciences.

Career and Technical Student Organization (CTSO)

Collegiate DECA, an association of marketing students, and SkillsUSA are the intercurricular career and technical student organizations providing leadership training and reinforcing specific career and technical skills. Career and Technical Student Organizations provide activities for students as an integral part of the instruction offered.

Accommodations

Federal and state legislation requires the provision of accommodations for students with disabilities to meet individual needs and ensure equal access. Postsecondary students with disabilities must self-identify, present documentation, request accommodations if needed, and develop a plan with their counselor and/or instructors. Accommodations received in postsecondary education may differ from those received in secondary education. Accommodations change the way the student is instructed. Students with disabilities may need accommodations in such areas as instructional methods and materials, assignments and assessments, time demands and schedules, learning environment, assistive technology and special communication systems. Documentation of the accommodations requested and provided should be maintained in a confidential file.

Special Notes

This program shall meet the instructional hours and standards established by the accrediting arm of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, the Accreditation Counsel for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND). Upon completion of the course requirements, the graduate would need to pass a written national examination for registered dietetic technicians. All diet technicians would be encouraged to become affiliate members of the Academy of Nutrition Dietetics. The Associate Degree would qualify the technician for a mid-management position in food service in the health care industry.

The particular outcomes and student performance standards which the students with disabilities must master to earn credit must be specified in the student's individual educational plan (IEP). Additional credits may be earned when outcomes and standards are mastered in accordance with the requirements indicated in subsequent IEP's. The job title for which the student is being trained must be designated in the IEP.

The concern for balancing work and family responsibilities is addressed as an employability skill.

Additional Information

Laboratory Activities

Laboratory investigations that include scientific inquiry, research, measurement, problem solving, emerging technologies, tools and equipment, as well as, experimental, quality, and safety procedures are an integral part of this career and technical program/course. Laboratory investigations benefit all students by developing an understanding of the complexity and ambiguity of empirical work, as well as the skills required to manage, operate, calibrate and troubleshoot equipment/tools used to make observations. Students understand measurement error; and have the skills to aggregate, interpret, and present the resulting data. Equipment and supplies should be provided to enhance hands-on experiences for students.

Special Notes

General Education Course Requirements for AS and AAS Degrees

State Board of Education Rule 6A-14.030 (4) F.A.C. identifies 15 credit hours as the minimum amount of general education coursework required in the Associate of Science degree and the Associate of Applied Science degree. In addition, Rule 6A-14.0303 FAC implements section 1007.25 Florida Statutes and requires students entering a technical education degree program in the 2022-2023 academic year, and thereafter, to complete at least one identified core course in each subject area as part of the general education course requirements (15 credit hours total) before a degree is awarded) The core subject areas include:

- Communication.
- Humanities.
- Mathematics.

- Social Sciences.

Career and Technical Student Organization (CTSO)

SkillsUSA is the inter-curricular career and technical student organization providing leadership training and reinforcing specific career and technical skills. Career and Technical Student Organizations provide activities for students as an integral part of the instruction offered.

Accommodations

Federal and state legislation requires the provision of accommodations for students with disabilities to meet individual needs and ensure equal access. Postsecondary students with disabilities must self-identify, present documentation, request accommodations if needed, and develop a plan with their counselor and/or instructors. Accommodations received in postsecondary education may differ from those received in secondary education. Accommodations change the way the student is instructed. Students with disabilities may need accommodations in such areas as instructional methods and materials, assignments and assessments, time demands and schedules, learning environment, assistive technology and special communication systems. Documentation of the accommodations requested and provided should be maintained in a confidential file.

Certificate Programs

A College Credit Certificate consists of a program of instruction of less than sixty (60) credits of college-level courses, which is part of an AS or AAS degree program and prepares students for entry into employment (Rule 6A-14.030, F.A.C.). This AS degree program includes the following College Credit Certificates:

Additional Information

Laboratory Activities

Laboratory investigations that include scientific inquiry, research, measurement, problem solving, emerging technologies, tools and equipment, as well as, experimental, quality, and safety procedures are an integral part of this career and technical program/course. Laboratory investigations benefit all students by developing an understanding of the complexity and ambiguity of empirical work, as well as the skills required to manage, operate, calibrate and troubleshoot equipment/tools used to make observations. Students understand measurement error; and have the skills to aggregate, interpret, and present the resulting data. Equipment and supplies should be provided to enhance hands-on experiences for students.

Special Notes

General Education Course Requirements for AS and AAS Degrees

State Board of Education Rule 6A-14.030 (4) F.A.C. identifies 15 credit hours as the minimum amount of general education coursework required in the Associate of Science degree and the Associate of Applied Science degree. In addition, Rule 6A-14.0303 FAC implements section 1007.25 Florida Statutes and requires students entering a technical education degree program in the 2022-2023 academic year, and thereafter, to complete at least one identified core course in each subject area as part of the general education course requirements (15 credit hours total) before a degree is awarded) The core subject areas include:

- Communication.
- Humanities.
- Mathematics.
- Natural Sciences.
- Social Sciences.

Career and Technical Student Organization (CTSO)

SkillsUSA is the intercurricular career and technical student organization providing leadership training and reinforcing specific career and technical skills. Career and Technical Student Organizations provide activities for students as an integral part of the instruction offered.

Accommodations

Federal and state legislation requires the provision of accommodations for students with disabilities to meet individual needs and ensure equal access. Postsecondary students with disabilities must self-identify, present documentation, request accommodations if needed, and develop a plan with their counselor and/or instructors. Accommodations received in postsecondary education may differ from those received in secondary education. Accommodations change the way the student is instructed. Students with disabilities may need accommodations in such areas as instructional methods and materials, assignments and assessments, time demands and schedules, learning environment, assistive technology and special communication systems. Documentation of the accommodations requested and provided should be maintained in a confidential file.

Certificate Programs

A College Credit Certificate consists of a program of instruction of less than sixty (60) credits of college-level courses, which is part of an AS or AAS degree program and prepares students for entry into employment (Rule 6A-14.030, F.A.C.). This AS degree program includes the following College Credit Certificates:

- Chef’s Apprentice (0612050302) – 12 credit hours
- Culinary Arts (0612050301) – 35 credit hours
- Culinary Arts Management Operations (0612050401) – 18 credit hours

Standards for the above certificate programs are contained in separate curriculum frameworks.

Additional Information

Laboratory Activities

Laboratory investigations that include scientific inquiry, research, measurement, problem solving, emerging technologies, tools and equipment, as well as, experimental, quality, and safety procedures are an integral part of this career and technical program/course. Laboratory investigations benefit all students by developing an understanding of the complexity and ambiguity of empirical work, as well as the skills required to manage, operate, calibrate and troubleshoot equipment/tools used to make observations. Students understand measurement error; and have the skills to aggregate, interpret, and present the resulting data. Equipment and supplies should be provided to enhance hands-on experiences for students.

Career and Technical Student Organization (CTSO)

Collegiate DECA (postsecondary) is the intercurricular career and technical student organization providing leadership training and reinforcing specific career and technical skills. Career and Technical Student Organizations provide activities for students as an integral part of the instruction offered.

Cooperative Training – OJT

On-the-job training is appropriate but not required for this program. Whenever offered, the rules, guidelines, and requirements specified in the OJT framework apply.

Basic Skills

In Career Certificate Programs offered for 450 hours or more, in accordance with Rule 6A-10.040, F.A.C., the minimum basic skills grade levels required for postsecondary adult career and technical students to complete this program are: Computation (Mathematics) and Communications (Reading and Language Arts). These grade level numbers correspond to a grade equivalent score obtained on a state designated basic skills examination.

Adult students with disabilities, as defined in Section 1004.02, Florida Statutes, may be exempted from meeting the Basic Skills requirements (Rule 6A-10.040). Students served in exceptional student education (except gifted) as defined in s. 1003.01, F.S., may also be exempted from meeting the Basic Skills requirement. Each school district and Florida College System Institution must adopt a policy addressing procedures for exempting eligible students with disabilities from the Basic Skills requirement as permitted in Section 1004.91, F.S.

Accommodations

Federal and state legislation requires the provision of accommodations for students with disabilities to meet individual needs and ensure equal access. Postsecondary students with disabilities must self-identify, present documentation, request accommodations if needed, and develop a plan with their counselor and/or instructors. Accommodations received in postsecondary education may differ from those received in secondary education. Accommodations change the way the student is instructed. Students with disabilities may need accommodations in such areas as instructional methods and materials, assignments and assessments, time demands and schedules, learning environment, assistive technology and special communication systems. Documentation of the accommodations requested and provided should be maintained in a confidential file.

Note: postsecondary curriculum and regulated secondary programs cannot be modified.

Common Career Technical Core – Career Ready Practices

Career Ready Practices describe the career-ready skills that educators should seek to develop in their students. These practices are not exclusive to a Career Pathway, program of study, discipline or level of education. Career Ready Practices should be taught and reinforced in all career exploration and preparation programs with increasingly higher levels of complexity and expectation as a student advances through a program of study.

1. Act as a responsible and contributing citizen and employee.
2. Apply appropriate academic and technical skills.
3. Attend to personal health and financial well-being.
4. Communicate clearly, effectively and with reason.
5. Consider the environmental, social and economic impacts of decisions.
6. Demonstrate creativity and innovation.
7. Employ valid and reliable research strategies.
8. Utilize critical thinking to make sense of problems and persevere in solving them.
9. Model integrity, ethical leadership and effective management.
10. Plan education and career path aligned to personal goals.
11. Use technology to enhance productivity.
12. Work productively in teams while using cultural/global competence.

Additional Information

Laboratory Activities

Laboratory investigations that include scientific inquiry, research, measurement, problem solving, emerging technologies, tools and equipment, as well as, experimental, quality, and safety procedures are an integral part of this career and technical program/course. Laboratory investigations benefit all students by developing an understanding of the complexity and ambiguity of empirical work, as well as the skills required to manage, operate, calibrate and troubleshoot equipment/tools used to make observations. Students understand measurement error; and have the skills to aggregate, interpret, and present the resulting data. Equipment and supplies should be provided to enhance hands-on experiences for students.

Career and Technical Student Organization (CTSO)

SkillsUSA is the appropriate intercurricular career and technical student organization providing leadership training and reinforcing specific career and technical skills. Career and Technical Student Organizations provide activities for students as an integral part of the instruction offered.

Cooperative Training – OJT

On-the-job training is appropriate but not required for this program. Whenever offered, the rules, guidelines, and requirements specified in the OJT framework apply.

Basic Skills

In Career Certificate Programs offered for 450 hours or more, in accordance with Rule 6A-10.040, F.A.C., the minimum basic skills grade levels required for postsecondary adult career and technical students to complete this program are: Computation (Mathematics) and Communications (Reading and Language Arts). These grade level numbers correspond to a grade equivalent score obtained on a state designated basic skills examination.

Adult students with disabilities, as defined in Section 1004.02, Florida Statutes, may be exempted from meeting the Basic Skills requirements (Rule 6A-10.040). Students served in exceptional student education (except gifted) as defined in s. 1003.01, F.S., may also be exempted from meeting the Basic Skills requirement. Each school district and Florida College System Institution must adopt a policy addressing procedures for exempting eligible students with disabilities from the Basic Skills requirement as permitted in Section 1004.91, F.S.

Accommodations

Federal and state legislation requires the provision of accommodations for students with disabilities to meet individual needs and ensure equal access. Postsecondary students with disabilities must self-identify, present documentation, request accommodations if needed, and develop a plan with their counselor and/or instructors. Accommodations received in postsecondary education may differ from those received in secondary education. Accommodations change the way the student is instructed. Students with disabilities may need accommodations in such areas as instructional methods and materials, assignments and assessments, time demands and schedules, learning environment, assistive technology and special communication systems. Documentation of the accommodations requested and provided should be maintained in a confidential file.

Note: postsecondary curriculum and regulated secondary programs cannot be modified.

This program offers a sequence of courses that provides coherent and rigorous content aligned with challenging academic standards and relevant technical knowledge and skills needed to prepare for further education and careers in the Hospitality & Tourism career cluster; provides technical skill proficiency, and includes competency-based applied learning that contributes to the academic knowledge, higher-order reasoning and problem-solving skills, work attitudes, general employability skills, technical skills, and occupation-specific skills, and knowledge of all aspects of the Hospitality & Tourism career cluster.

The content includes but is not limited to preparation, presentation, choosing nutritionally sound ingredients/cooking methods using a variety of foods; leadership, communication skills, employability skills, and safe/efficient work practices are also covered. This coursework prepares students for employment in the vegetarian food service/hospitality industry.

Additional Information relevant to this Career and Technical Education (CTE) program is provided at the end of this document.

Program Structure

This program is a planned sequence of instruction consisting of two occupational completion points.

This program is comprised of courses which have been assigned course numbers in the SCNS (Statewide Course Numbering System) in accordance with Section 1007.24 (1), F.S. Career and Technical credit shall be awarded to the student on a transcript in accordance with Section 1001.44(3)(b), F.S.

To teach the course(s) listed below, instructors must hold at least one of the teacher certifications indicated for that course.

The following table illustrates the postsecondary program structure:

OCP	Course Number	Course Title	Teacher Certification	Length	SOC Code
A	FSS0211	Vegetarian Food Preparation	FAM CON SCI	300 hours	35-2021
B	FSS0212	Vegetarian Restaurant Cooking	CULINARY 7 G	300 hours	35-2014

Common Career Technical Core – Career Ready Practices

Career Ready Practices describe the career-ready skills that educators should seek to develop in their students. These practices are not exclusive to a Career Pathway, program of study, discipline or level of education. Career Ready Practices should be taught and reinforced in all career exploration and preparation programs with increasingly higher levels of complexity and expectation as a student advances through a program of study.

1. Act as a responsible and contributing citizen and employee.
2. Apply appropriate academic and technical skills.
3. Attend to personal health and financial well-being.
4. Communicate clearly, effectively and with reason.
5. Consider the environmental, social and economic impacts of decisions.
6. Demonstrate creativity and innovation.
7. Employ valid and reliable research strategies.
8. Utilize critical thinking to make sense of problems and persevere in solving them.
9. Model integrity, ethical leadership and effective management.
10. Plan education and career path aligned to personal goals.
11. Use technology to enhance productivity.
12. Work productively in teams while using cultural/global competence.

Additional Information

Laboratory Activities

Laboratory investigations that include scientific inquiry, research, measurement, problem solving, emerging technologies, tools and equipment, as well as, experimental, quality, and safety procedures are an integral part of this career and technical program/course. Laboratory investigations benefit all students by developing an understanding of the complexity and ambiguity of empirical work, as well as the skills required to manage, operate, calibrate and troubleshoot equipment/tools used to make observations. Students understand measurement error; and have the skills to aggregate, interpret, and present the resulting data. Equipment and supplies should be provided to enhance hands-on experiences for students.

Special Notes

Information on Department of Health rules that affect culinary programs is available at <https://www.flrules.org/gateway/chapterhome.asp?chapter=64E-11>.

It is strongly recommended that teachers obtain employee food handler training certification, as well as food safety manager training/certification. More information available at the Florida Department of Business & Professional Regulation (<http://www.myfloridalicense.com/DBPR/hotels-restaurants/food-lodging/>).

Career and Technical Student Organization (CTSO)

SkillsUSA is the intercurricular career and technical student organization providing leadership training and reinforcing specific career and technical skills. Career and Technical Student Organizations provide activities for students as an integral part of the instruction offered.

Cooperative Training – OJT

On-the-job training is appropriate but not required for this program. Whenever offered, the rules, guidelines, and requirements specified in the OJT framework apply.

Basic Skills

In Career Certificate Programs offered for 450 hours or more, in accordance with Rule 6A-10.040, F.A.C., the minimum basic skills grade levels required for postsecondary adult career and technical students to complete this program are: Computation (Mathematics) and Communications (Language and Reading and Language Arts). These grade level numbers correspond to a grade equivalent score obtained on a state designated basic skills examination.

Adult students with disabilities, as defined in Section 1004.02, Florida Statutes, may be exempted from meeting the Basic Skills requirements (Rule 6A-10.040). Students served in exceptional student education (except gifted) as defined in s. 1003.01, F.S., may also be exempted from meeting the Basic Skills requirement. Each school district and Florida College System Institution must adopt a policy addressing procedures for exempting eligible students with disabilities from the Basic Skills requirement as permitted in Section 1004.91, F.S.

Accommodations

Federal and state legislation requires the provision of accommodations for students with disabilities to meet individual needs and ensure equal access. Postsecondary students with disabilities must self-identify, present documentation, request accommodations if needed, and develop a plan with their counselor and/or instructors. Accommodations received in postsecondary education may differ from those received in secondary education. Accommodations change the way the student is instructed. Students with disabilities may need accommodations in such areas as instructional methods and materials, assignments and assessments, time demands and schedules, learning environment, assistive technology and special communication systems. Documentation of the accommodations requested and provided should be maintained in a confidential file.

Note: postsecondary curriculum and regulated secondary programs cannot be modified.

Common Career Technical Core – Career Ready Practices

Career Ready Practices describe the career-ready skills that educators should seek to develop in their students. These practices are not exclusive to a Career Pathway, program of study, discipline or level of education. Career Ready Practices should be taught and reinforced in all career exploration and preparation programs with increasingly higher levels of complexity and expectation as a student advances through a program of study.

1. Act as a responsible and contributing citizen and employee.
2. Apply appropriate academic and technical skills.
3. Attend to personal health and financial well-being.
4. Communicate clearly, effectively and with reason.
5. Consider the environmental, social and economic impacts of decisions.
6. Demonstrate creativity and innovation.
7. Employ valid and reliable research strategies.
8. Utilize critical thinking to make sense of problems and persevere in solving them.
9. Model integrity, ethical leadership and effective management.
10. Plan education and career path aligned to personal goals.
11. Use technology to enhance productivity.
12. Work productively in teams while using cultural/global competence

Additional Information

Laboratory Activities

Laboratory investigations that include scientific inquiry, research, measurement, problem solving, emerging technologies, tools and equipment, as well as, experimental, quality, and safety procedures are an integral part of this career and technical program/course. Laboratory investigations benefit all students by developing an understanding of the complexity and ambiguity of empirical work, as well as the skills required to manage, operate, calibrate and troubleshoot equipment/tools used to make observations. Students understand measurement error; and have the skills to aggregate, interpret, and present the resulting data. Equipment and supplies should be provided to enhance hands-on experiences for students.

Special Notes

This program prepares students for employment as educational paraprofessionals, instructional coordinators (SOC 25-9031), teacher aides, or to provide supplemental training for persons previously or currently employed in this occupation.

Planned and supervised occupational activities may be provided through directed laboratory experience or a practicum.

Career and Technical Student Organization (CTSO)

SkillsUSA is the intercurricular career and technical student organization providing leadership training and reinforcing specific career and technical skills. Career and Technical Student Organizations provide activities for students as an integral part of the instruction offered.

Cooperative Training – OJT

On-the-job training is appropriate but not required for this program. Whenever offered, the rules, guidelines, and requirements specified in the OJT framework apply.

Basic Skills

In Career Certificate Programs offered for 450 hours or more, in accordance with Rule 6A-10.040, F.A.C., the minimum basic skills grade levels required for postsecondary adult career and technical students to complete this program are: Computation (Mathematics) and Communications (Reading and Language Arts). These grade level numbers correspond to a grade equivalent score obtained on a state designated basic skills examination.

Adult students with disabilities, as defined in Section 1004.02, Florida Statutes, may be exempted from meeting the Basic Skills requirements (Rule 6A-10.040). Students served in exceptional student education (except gifted) as defined in s. 1003.01, F.S., may also be exempted from meeting the Basic Skills requirement. Each school district and Florida College System Institution must adopt a policy addressing procedures for exempting eligible students with disabilities from the Basic Skills requirement as permitted in Section 1004.91, F.S.

Accommodations

Federal and state legislation requires the provision of accommodations for students with disabilities to meet individual needs and ensure equal access. Postsecondary students with disabilities must self-identify, present documentation, request accommodations if needed, and develop a plan with their counselor and/or instructors. Accommodations received in postsecondary education may differ from those received in secondary education. Accommodations change the way the student is instructed. Students with disabilities may need accommodations in such areas as instructional methods and materials, assignments and assessments, time demands and schedules, learning environment, assistive technology and special communication systems. Documentation of the accommodations requested and provided should be maintained in a confidential file.

Regulated Programs

Information on Department of Health rules that affect culinary programs is available at <https://www.flrules.org/gateway/chapterhome.asp?chapter=64E-11>.

This program is regulated by the Florida Department of Business & Professional Regulation, Division of Hotels and Restaurants.

It is strongly recommended that teachers obtain the Employee Foodhandler Training Certification, as well as the food safety manager training/certification, More information available at the Florida Department of Business & Professional Regulation (<http://www.myfloridalicense.com/DBPR/hotels-restaurants/food-lodging/>).

Common Career Technical Core – Career Ready Practices

Career Ready Practices describe the career-ready skills that educators should seek to develop in their students. These practices are not exclusive to a Career Pathway, program of study, discipline or level of education. Career Ready Practices should be taught and reinforced in all career exploration and preparation programs with increasingly higher levels of complexity and expectation as a student advances through a program of study.

1. Act as a responsible and contributing citizen and employee.
2. Apply appropriate academic and technical skills.
3. Attend to personal health and financial well-being.
4. Communicate clearly, effectively and with reason.
5. Consider the environmental, social and economic impacts of decisions.
6. Demonstrate creativity and innovation.
7. Employ valid and reliable research strategies.
8. Utilize critical thinking to make sense of problems and persevere in solving them.
9. Model integrity, ethical leadership and effective management.
10. Plan education and career path aligned to personal goals.
11. Use technology to enhance productivity.
12. Work productively in teams while using cultural/global competence.

Additional Information

Laboratory Activities

Laboratory investigations that include scientific inquiry, research, measurement, problem solving, emerging technologies, tools and equipment, as well as, experimental, quality, and safety procedures are an integral part of this career and technical program/course. Laboratory investigations benefit all students by developing an understanding of the complexity and ambiguity of empirical work, as well as the skills required to manage, operate, calibrate and troubleshoot equipment/tools used to make observations. Students understand measurement error; and have the skills to aggregate, interpret, and present the resulting data. Equipment and supplies should be provided to enhance hands-on experiences for students.

Career and Technical Student Organization (CTSO)

SkillsUSA is the appropriate intercurricular career and technical student organization providing leadership training and reinforcing specific career and technical skills. Career and Technical Student Organizations provide activities for students as an integral part of the instruction offered.

Cooperative Training – OJT

On-the-job training is appropriate but not required for this program. Whenever offered, the rules, guidelines, and requirements specified in the OJT framework apply.

Basic Skills

In Career Certificate Programs offered for 450 hours or more, in accordance with Rule 6A-10.040, F.A.C., the minimum basic skills grade levels required for postsecondary adult career and technical students to complete this program are: Computation (Mathematics) and Communications (Reading and Language Arts). These grade level numbers correspond to a grade equivalent score obtained on a state designated basic skills examination.

Adult students with disabilities, as defined in Section 1004.02, Florida Statutes, may be exempted from meeting the Basic Skills requirements (Rule 6A-10.040). Students served in exceptional student education (except gifted) as defined in s. 1003.01, F.S., may also be exempted from meeting the Basic Skills requirement. Each school district and Florida College System Institution must adopt a policy addressing procedures for exempting eligible students with disabilities from the Basic Skills requirement as permitted in Section 1004.91, F.S.

Accommodations

Federal and state legislation requires the provision of accommodations for students with disabilities to meet individual needs and ensure equal access. Postsecondary students with disabilities must self-identify, present documentation, request accommodations if needed, and develop a plan with their counselor and/or instructors. Accommodations received in postsecondary education may differ from those received in secondary education. Accommodations change the way the student is instructed. Students with disabilities may need accommodations in such areas as instructional methods and materials, assignments and assessments, time demands and schedules, learning environment, assistive technology and special communication systems. Documentation of the accommodations requested and provided should be maintained in a confidential file.

Note: postsecondary curriculum and regulated secondary programs cannot be modified.

Purpose

This program offers a sequence of courses that provides coherent and rigorous content aligned with challenging academic standards and relevant technical knowledge and skills needed to prepare for further education and careers in the Hospitality & Tourism career cluster; provides technical skill proficiency, and includes competency-based applied learning that contributes to the academic knowledge, higher-order reasoning and problem-solving skills, work attitudes, general employability skills, technical skills, and occupation-specific skills, and knowledge of all aspects of the Hospitality & Tourism career cluster.

The purpose of this program is to prepare students for initial employment as a diet clerk. The diet clerk works under the supervision of a registered dietitian in a hospital or nursing home; or may work under the direction of a certified dietary manager or dietetic technician. With experience, the dietetic clerk may assume assistant supervisory responsibilities in various units of the nutrition department.

The content includes but is not limited to an introduction to the dietetic career ladder. It is designed to train students to assist in various functions of food service related to patient care. Diet clerks are involved in the preparation of safe and nutritious meals for patients/clients in various healthcare facilities. The curriculum includes a combination of theory, laboratory and clinical experiences.

Additional Information relevant to this Career and Technical Education (CTE) program is provided at the end of this document.

Program Structure

This program is a planned sequence of instruction consisting of one occupational completion points.

This program is comprised of courses which have been assigned course numbers in the SCNS (Statewide Course Numbering System) in accordance with Section 1007.24 (1), F.S. Career and Technical credit shall be awarded to the student on a transcript in accordance with Section 1001.44(3)(b), F.S.

To teach the course listed below, instructors must hold at least one of the teacher certifications indicated for that course.

The following table illustrates the postsecondary program structure:

OCP	Course Number	Course Title	Teacher Certification	Length	SOC Code

Common Career Technical Core – Career Ready Practices

Career Ready Practices describe the career-ready skills that educators should seek to develop in their students. These practices are not exclusive to a Career Pathway, program of study, discipline or level of education. Career Ready Practices should be taught and reinforced in all career exploration and preparation programs with increasingly higher levels of complexity and expectation as a student advances through a program of study.

1. Act as a responsible and contributing citizen and employee.
2. Apply appropriate academic and technical skills.
3. Attend to personal health and financial well-being.
4. Communicate clearly, effectively and with reason.
5. Consider the environmental, social and economic impacts of decisions.
6. Demonstrate creativity and innovation.
7. Employ valid and reliable research strategies.
8. Utilize critical thinking to make sense of problems and persevere in solving them.
9. Model integrity, ethical leadership and effective management.
10. Plan education and career path aligned to personal goals.
11. Use technology to enhance productivity.
12. Work productively in teams while using cultural/global competence.

Standards

After successfully completing this program, the student will be able to perform the following:

- 01.0 Perform basic tasks in dietary office and utilize computer.
- 02.0 Demonstrate knowledge of basic nutrition concepts and provides opportunities to study food and nutrients, as it relates to food and nutrition.
- 03.0 Maintain daily records in area of responsibility.
- 04.0 Participate in tray assembly activities and monitor trays for diet accuracy.
- 05.0 Assist with food production activities and preparation of nutritional supplements.
- 06.0 Demonstrate knowledge and application of principles of sanitation and safety.
- 07.0 Perform cafeteria/dining room duties.
- 08.0 Practice optimum personal hygiene and grooming.
- 09.0 Demonstrate personal productivity.
- 10.0 Explain education and research principles.
- 11.0 Participate in a clinical experience.
